TIM PICK-UP SET DEC. 11

By EILEEN T. FALANEY

Waverly Catholics of this village will cooperate with their fellow-citizens in answering the appeal for the one-day campaign for which will be conducted Saturday, Dec. 11 with village trucks covering the community.

Mayor Fred Gilman made the announcement, this week.

Don W. McCollins plans to have a group of high school boys assist in the collection. Waverly residents are urged to prepare their homes in accordance with suggestions issued previously.

WOUNDED IN ACTION

Second son of Mrs. Teresa Scalzo, 318 Broad St., Waverly is suffering wounds in action in the present war, Pvt. William D. (Tommy) Scalzo was reported by the War Department as seriously wounded in Italy, his mother has been informed. His brother, Corp. Louis J. Scalzo holds the Order of the Purple Heart for wounds received Dec. 7, 1941.

Private Scalzo was injured on Sunday, Nov. 14 which coincided with a communique issued by Allied headquarters in Algiers reporting that three counter-attacks by the 29th German panzer grenadiers was smothered by U. S. troops.

Joining the army in June 1940, following his graduation from Waverly High School the year before, he entered the field artillery. Overseas almost a year he has been in action in Tunisia and Sicily.

His brother Corp. Louis J. Scalzo was stationed at Hickam Field, Hawaii, when the Japs attacked Pearl Harbor, just two years ago. He sustained a scalp wound and later was awarded the Purple Heart, one of the two Valley boys to win this citation on the opening day of the war, the other being Sgt. Paul Comstock of Hayra, stationed at the same field.
