Staff Takes Office In St. Anthony Group

GENEVA — Election of officers of the St. Anthony Society took place on Sunday, Dec. 5, at St. Francis de Sales School Hall. Miss Edith Chacchia, a charter member of the organization, who has been financial secretary for a period of six years, tendered her resignation which was accepted with regret. Mrs. Pearl DeJohn was named to the office.

Others elected were as follows: president, Mrs. Josephine Pena; vice-president, Mrs. Jeanette Quartaro; financial secretary, Mrs. Pearl DeJohn; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Anna Matteehi; treasurer, Mrs. Christine Fare; advocate, Mrs. Elizabeth Legato; first trustee, Mrs. Mary Sweeney; second trustee, Mrs. Mary Danilco; third trustee, Mrs. Philomena Flynn; committee leader, Mrs. Angela Mary Perry; committee women, Mrs. Mary Brigandi and Mrs. Mary Jesson; guards, Mrs. Leonarda Vardabash and Mrs. Carmella Di Antonio.

Day Of Recollection For Young People Set At Holy Family

Beginning with Holy Communion at the 10 o'clock Mass this Sunday, Dec. 29 all the parish high school boys and girls, and those of high school age who are working, will begin a serious preparation for a holy and joyous Christmas in Holy Family Church.

Under the direction of the Rev. George Vogt, the Religious Instruction Leader of the diocese, the young people will follow a program of prayer, meditation and discussion. The theme will be Bringing Christ to the Youth.

Immediately after the Mass breakfast will be served in the hall in silence. At 11:30 the first conference will be held. Dismissal at 12 for dinner. In the afternoon the first meeting will be at 1:15 followed by free time in silence till the informal discussion period at 2:45. The parish library will be opened giving an opportunity for reading. The Holy Hour at 4 will close this needed and successful Day of Recollection.

All parents are asked to cooperate and send their sons and daughters on time.

SODALITY TO ELECT

The regular meeting of the Holy Family Sodality will be held this Tuesday, Dec. 31, in the hall at 8:00 P. M. All members are encouraged to be present as the officers for the coming year will be elected.

The candidates for offices are boys and girls in good standing and still attending high school. The office of Prefect and Vice-Prefect goes to a boy while the rest of the offices are held by the girls.

NEWS IN BRIEF: The Christmas program will appear in this column next issue. There will be 3 Masses on Christmas Eve, one in the Church, the other in the Auditorium . . . Efforts are being made to provide the Dutchtowners with a Skating Rink at the Y. & E. Field. With the cooperation of the parishioners and others in the neighborhood, this should be a reality this winter . . . The Main Altar and its fixtures have been recently redecorated in a delicate ivory color, very pleasing to the eye . . . The Thursday Nite Parties are continuing successfully even during the holiday season, affording a pleasant pastime for our parishioners who work so diligently during the week.

Companionship of God

Oh! Who will refuse — at the price of the light obligations which these duties impose—to accept as the companion of his life Him Whom we call The Good God.

Honor Priest

OTTAWA — The Rt. Rev. J. A. McGerald, head of the Catholic Family Service, was elected president of the Ottawa Social Workers Club here. The Social Workers Club is made up of representatives of all social agencies in Ottawa.

Retreat Record Made

CHICAGO — More than 2000 men have made retreats at St. Frederic Service's Layman's Retreat Center near Hinsdale in the last eleven months. The figure is well over last year's total. A retreat for the blind, inaugurated by the priests several years ago, was held last week.
