NEWS OF FIGHTING MEN

By Joan A. Reardon

SENECA FALLS — Sgt. Michael J. Blawski, son of Mrs. Mary Blawski, West Bayard St., has been promoted to Staff Sergeant at San Antonio Classification Center. His brother, Pfc. John Blawski is also located at the same station.

Capt. Philip Burns, stationed at Leland Air Base, Fla., and Mrs. Burns are spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Burns of West Bayard St.

S2/c Henry Oakes, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oakes of Lyons, who is stationed at Long Beach, Calif., was a recent guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Owen Oakes of West Bayard St.

S1/ Donald Sullivan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sullivan of Cayuga St., has been transferred from the Naval Armory at Michigan City, Ind. to the A. and M. College at Stillwater, Okla.

CHAPLAIN WHEATON

Chaplain John C. Wheaton, Lt. Commander and Senior Catholic Chaplain at Sampson was guest and principal speaker at the Buck-a-Boy Dinner, Wednesday, Jan. 19 at the Armory for the 10 Seneca Falls Inductees who are leaving to join the armed forces. Lt. Commander Wheaton gave an interesting talk on his experiences on the U. S. S. Helena and on Vella Lovella Island in the South Pacific.

ENGAGEMENT

Mrs. Mary Blawski, 118 West Bayard St. has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Pauline to John Matthews, son of Mrs. Eva Matthews.

PLAN FOOD SALE

St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society met Monday, Jan. 17 in the school auditorium. Miss Julia O'Brien, president, conducted the meeting. The Guild is planning to hold its annual food sale, probably Feb. 20. This sale is one of the few sources of income, outside of dues, and patronage of it, both in donations and purchases is urged. Each member will be contacted through her leader. Miss O'Brien particularly stressed that while money is appreciated, it is hoped that the donations of food will be plentiful. Mrs. William Hughes is chairman.

The Guild is planning a membership drive with the object of having every woman in St. Patrick's parish in the Society. Miss O'Brien stated that she felt certain there was no need for selling the idea to any one since the work of the organization speaks for itself.

At the close of the business meeting a luncheon was served by a committee under direction of Miss Florence Spennell. There were approximately one hundred and fifty members present.

The marriage of Miss Margaret J. Bolma, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Bolma, of Sunnyside, Clover Lake, S. J., and PFC. Anthony M. Pagano, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pagano, 83 Ovid St., Seneca Falls took place Jan. 14 in St. Theresa's Church, Sunnyside, Clover Lake. The Rev. Phillip Cauran performed the ceremony and officiated at the Nuptial Mass. Attendants were Mrs. M. Melick of New York City and Pvt. Marvia Shooks of Albany. A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Pagano are spending a short time in Seneca Falls and will make their home at Sunnyside Clover Lake. Pfc. Pagano is stationed at the Brooklyn Army Base.

Mrs. Florence Bruno of Seneca Falls, sister of the bridegroom, attended the wedding.

Archbishop Spellman Indorses Plan To Fight Racial Disunity

NEW YORK. — The Most Rev. Francis J. Spellman, Archbishop of New York, has indorsed the American Jewish Committee's four-point program to combat racial disunity in America. In a message to former Judge Joseph M. Proskauer, who read the program on a radio program, Archbishop Spellman said:

"I trust your noble efforts to be helpful in overcoming religious and racial animosities will bear fruit and will promote mutual respect, understanding and tolerance among all groups of Americans."

Following are the program's four points: "1. I will spread no rumor and no slander against any race. 2. I will never try to indict a whole people by reason of the iniquity of any member. 3. I will daily deal with every man in business, in social and in political relations, only on the basis of his true individual worth. 4. In my daily conduct I will cooperate myself hour by hour, to the achievement of the highest ideal of the dignity of mankind, human equality, human fellowship and human brotherhood."

Catholic Daughters Supper Meeting Set For Jan. 24

AUBURN. — The Catholic Daughters of America will hold a pre-lenten social in the form of a supper meeting on Monday evening, Jan. 24, at the Catholic Daughters Home on South St. Supper will be served at 6:30.

This will be the only social until Easter and the committee, with Mrs. Kathleen Salzer as chairman, are making plans to have this the outstanding social affair of the winter season.

Mrs. Salzer is being assisted by Mrs. Nellie Donahue, Mrs. Alice Alder, Mrs. Josephine Conkey, Miss Katherine Perry, Mrs. Paul Brennan, Mrs. Adelaide White, Miss Loretta Goss, Mrs. Nora Bouck and Mrs. Frances Nevin. Reservations will close on Saturday, Jan. 22. Members are urged to make their reservations early by calling a member of the committee or the Catholic Daughters Home.

The organization held their regular meeting at the Home on Monday evening, Jan. 10. The chairmen of the various committees made their reports at the business session. The Medical Mission Unit of the Daughters reported a successful year. Miss Isabel Ryan is grand regent of the Catholic Daughters in Auburn. Rev. Gregory Bugan is Chaplain.

'Correct Lord's Prayer'

There is no biblical authority for adding to the Lord's Prayer, down and the power and the glory. The Religious Reformers in the 16th century said the Catholic Church taught error and they set about parrying the supposed error. But Christ said His Church would never teach error. Every Christian, therefore, must choose between Christ and the Reformers. If the Reformers are right, then Christ is wrong. But if Christ is right, then all the Reformers are wrong.
