Polish People Of Auburn To Sponsor Bond Rally

AUBURN—The War Bond Rally sponsored by the Polish Home and open to the general public will be conducted by John Karpinski, the former City Clerk of Auburn, with the aid of Francis Wolczyk, the president of the Polish Home, Sunday at 2 P. M.

The personal objective of every Pole will be at least a $100 War Bond. This War Bond Sale will try to exceed the former sale of Bonds of $75,000, which was held in September of the past year at the Falcons Hall. For the occasion many prominent men and women of the city will be present to encourage the bond sale.

St. Hyacinth's is doing their bit in behalf of all war efforts. More than 60 boys from the parish are serving with the armed forces, five of them have already given their lives for their country and five pair of the parish are serving as chaplains in World War II.

Million Earthquakes Each Year, Says Jesuit Scientist

ST. LOUIS.—That a million earthquakes annually is a conservative estimate is the assertion of the Rev. James Bernard Macelwane, S.J., director of St. Louis University seismological laboratories.

Father Macelwane, past president of the Seismological Society of America, says that, like the weather, nothing can be done about earthquakes. They are natural readjustments of the rocks of the earth's crusts, he adds.

Raising Funds For 52 Jeeps Earns Citations For Catholic Schools

GENEVA.—In recognition of patriotic services through personal and untiring effort, citations will be awarded to De Sales High School, St. Stephen's Grammar School, and St. Francis de Sales Grammar School, by the United States Treasury Department, through the War Finance Committee of New York State, according to an announcement made by Mrs. S. K. Neter, vice-chairman of the Ontario County Committee. The students secured funds for the purchase of 52 jeeps and parts.

The three schools complying with the request of the National government issued to all schools in the country to join a jeep campaign to supply the Armed Forces with an endless line of these necessary weapons of war, have accomplished what their leaders feel is an enviable record.

Starting with the first week of school and ending on "Pearl Harbor Day," the period set by the Treasury Department, the three local schools have secured the following funds translated into complete jeeps and parts of jeeps:

De Sales High School, $27,475—21 jeeps, 3 engines, 1 instrument panel, 1 safety strap. St. Stephen's Grammar School, $18,145—15 jeeps, 2 engines, 5 propeller shafts, 1 muffler. St. Francis de Sales Grammar School, $15,487.50 — 14 jeeps, 1 transfer case, 1 bumper, 1 instrument panel.
