Pontifical Mass, Blessing Of Center, Banquet Listed

By DOLORES E. HANRAHAN

HORNELL—This city will be honored on next Sunday, Jan. 30, by a visit from His Excellency, Bishop James E. Kearney, when he will appear at functions of primary interand near relatives may have the opportunity to assist at the Mass. Seats have also been reserved for the Holy Name Society, whose guest the Bishop will be at the Mass, the Sisters of Mercy from St. Ann's Convent and St. James Mercy Hospital, the Catholic Daughters of America; the U. S. Army Engineering Cadets from Alfred University and Company F, the home guard from Hornell, city officials have also been extended an invitation. However, all residents of Hornell have been included in the invitation and a capacity crowd is expected.

OFFICERS OF MASS
The Solemn Pontifical Mass will be celebrated in honor of all Hornellians, both Catholic and non-Catholic, who are in the country's service. The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett of St. Ann's Church will serve as Assistant Priest; the Rev. Walter Fischer will be Deacon; and the Rev. Francis Harding, Subdeacon. The Rev. Ignatius Cameron, pastor of St. Ignatius Loyola Church and the Rev. John P. O'Malley of Auburn will be honorary deacons at the throne.

Vice Chancellor, the Rev. Lawrence B. Casey will be first Master of Ceremonies and the Rev. Edward M. Lyons, M.A., rector of St. Andrew's Seminary will be second Master of Ceremonies. Filling the minor offices of the Mass will be seven trained seminarians.

The Mass of the Holy Infant by Schindler will be sung by St. Ann's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. Karl Reitzner, organist. Celebration of the Mass will be preceded by a solemn procession consisting of about 50 altar boys, visiting priests and a guard of honor composed of Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus.

HONORS SERVICEMAN
The Bishop will preach from the throne at the close of the Mass when he will also bless and dedicate a large service flag; commemorating the 465 men and women of St. Ann's parish who are now serving their country. Special honor will be paid the seven young men who have given their lives in the service of their country.

The Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, representing the congregation will publicly express gratification to the Bishop for his coming and will also make the announcements at Mass.

Special seating arrangements have been made, so that parents
