

"Let our prayers pass through the Blessed Virgin's hands, and she will give them precedence. Care of Ars."

"You put off this matter for a month, or till next year? Ah! what reason have you to count on living so long?"—St. Ignatius.

A NEVER TOO BUSY—Resides taking care of her family, Mrs. James Irwin, of Louisville, gives fifteen hours each week to the Red Cross, works at the local ration board and in summer tends a victory garden. Here she makes surgical dressings.

Stresses American Way Of Life Weakness

LOS ANGELES.—Recalling the dowryfalls of ancient Athens and Sparta, the Most Rev. John J. Cantwell, Archbishop of Los Angeles, admonished members of the Holy Name Union against deceiving "ourselves into thinking all is well" with the American way of life, at their annual Post-Communism Breakfast at the Baltimore Hotel.

The Archbishop's speech dealt with the corruption of Paganism, Archbishop Cantwell said, while "we are sent to heal the corruption of Christianity itself."

"Let us not deceive ourselves into thinking all is well with American life, the Archbishop said. "As Athens and Sparta sold themselves to material philosophy, and their end was destruction, so will it be with us. For generations now, our public education, the most powerful instrument in shaping the souls of the young, has been Godless. Christianity is not part of the heritage which, as a people we think worth the effort of transmitting."

Pope Given Lambs Blessed For Pallia

VATICAN CITY.—The traditional ceremony of presenting to His Holiness the Pope two live lambs previously blessed in the Basilica of St. Agnes Outside the Walls, took place on Friday, the Feast of St. Agnes.

Wool sheared from these lambs is to be woven into pallia for Archbishops and others having the privilege of wearing them. The weaving is done by the Sisters of the Convent of St. Cecilia, to whom the lambs were consigned.

What Profiteth

If profit and profit alone be the end sought by human effort, then society must reconcile itself to steady disintegration, constantly increasing conflict between individual groups and nations, and eventual destruction. Nicholas Murray Butler.

Redemption By Blood
Blood gave us birth;
And from its shadowy seed
Creeps forth each soul—begotten
of blood's heat,
Secreted in the flesh and given
form
By the bitter blith of blood. Oh
there was need
That blood should be shed
By God when mind was wed
To the body.
For there is no thrill
Of sweetness or anger,
No wild or delicate whisper—ache
or ecstasy,
And no flattering call
In the great No Man's Land of flesh
Which God took for His battle—
that is not born
Of blood.
