SODALTALK

Sacred Heart Sodality of Our Lady will hold its monthly meeting on Monday evening, Feb. 21. The probationers, who are to be received in May, have been invited to attend this meeting. During the meeting funds will be raised for the missions. Also, skits will be given by Terry McNulty, Treasurer, on dues, and by the Eucharistic Committee on Daily Mass during Lent. The Sodality is planning to have a Lenten Discussion Club to be held every Friday evening during Lent. This discussion club is aside from the regular Discussion Club of the Sodality.

We would like to remind you again about the Lenten Discussion Clubs. This is a very excellent project and one should be held by every Sodality during the coming Lenten season.

Does your Sodality hold its reception in May? If so, it would be wise to take example from Sacred Heart Sodality and start Probation Period now. If anyone would like to know more about a Sodality Probation Period, Rita Stitch, Our Lady's Committee Chairman, would be glad to be of assistance to you.

Nazareth Senior Wins Legion Oratory Honors

AUBURN. — Jane Marie Jones, Nazareth Academy, was adjudged winner of the American Legion Oratorical Contest here. She represented the county of Monroe in competition with the representatives of Steuben and Yates counties.

Each contestant delivered a prepared oration upon a subject relating to the Constitution of the United States. Miss Jones selecting "The Constitution in My Daily Life." Each contestant spoke extemporaneously upon an assigned subject, which Principal W. Jay Ellis of Central High School designated to be: "Personalities in the Constitutional Convention."

Boy Scouts At Immaculate Lauded For Bond Sales

Immaculate Conception Boy Scout Troop 18 and Cub Scouts marked the closing of Boy Scout week by attending 8 o'clock Mass with their fathers and receiving Holy Communion.

The Rev. George Wood told the boys to be good Catholics and they would be good Americans and good Scouts. Breakfast was served in the school hall by the Mothers Auxiliary assisted by the newly organized Cubs Auxiliary.

Merit badges and advancement cards were presented to the boys on Monday evening and they were congratulated on success in the War Bond drive at a Court of Honor in the school hall.

The Troop Committee of the Girl Scouts of the Immaculate have invited their parents and friends to a fashion show on Feb. 17 in the school hall to aid in their Bond Sale.

Movies For Children Listed At Museum

The evolution of instruments from man's first attempts to organize sound will be demonstrated in "Archaic and Unusual Instruments," one of five movies to be shown on the free movie program Saturday morning, Feb. 19, at 10:30 at Bausch Hall of the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences. The scenic beauty of Norway and the life of its people are depicted in "Norwegian Sketches" while "Take Your Pick" presents a contrast in sports. Two cartoons are listed: "Puzzled Pals" and "Joint Wipers."

The fluorescent rock, changing to vivid colors under the ultra-violet light and the flexible sandstone which can be bent by turning a knob installed beneath it, are proving to be especially popular items in the new mineralogy alcove. Exhibits are open from 9 to 5 on Saturdays and over 500 youngsters stayed to enjoy them following the movies a week ago.

Sodality To Entertain Eighth Grade Girls

A varied and interesting program has been planned for sodalists of Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral Parish when they meet Monday evening, Feb. 21, in the school hall. The meeting will be preceded by a Holy Hour in the Church from 7:30 to 8:00 P. M.

Eighth Grade girls will attend their first Sodality meeting and if they fulfill their obligations during a probation period they will be received into the Sodality in May.

Two skits will be presented at the meeting, one by Miss Terry McNulty, treasurer, and the other by Miss Rosemarie O'Brien, chairman of the Eucharistic Committee.

A quiz will be given, conducted by the Catholic Truth Committee in conjunction with Catholic Press Month.

Refreshments and dancing will follow the meeting.
