Social Experts To Lead Discussion on Delinquency

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of Sacred Heart Grammar School will be held on Monday evening, March 6, at 8 P. M. in the Flower City Park school hall.

A panel discussion of the basic cause of juvenile delinquency will center on the premise that "Not recreation but re-creation of the home" is needed. Rev. John T. Callahan, chairman, announces the following participants: Rev. Francis B. Burns, Professor of Moral Theology and Sociology; Dr. James Wishart, Boys' Advisor, John Marshall High School; Ralph Cogswell, Principal No. 40 School; Mrs. Helen McLaughlin, Probation Officer; Miss Isabelle Rovas, Social Case-worker, Catholic Charities, and Charles A. Tucker.

Preceding the discussion a short business meeting will be held at 7:30 P. M. in the Girl Scout room.

• LITTLE GIFTS FROM HOME—It's Miss Virginia Mitchell's job to cheer up wounded soldiers, helping carry out a part of debarkation for home. A Red Cross worker from Detroit, she passes out smiles, cigarettes, smoking tobacco and other items to boys on a North African hospital train.

Wanted—Blood Donors To Save Boys' Lives

Stimulating an increasing number of blood donors for the center at 37 Exchange St., the Catholic Sponsoring Committee is again appealing to all who have not been reached.

In a statement this week, the commitee points out:

"Recent statistics from the Army Surgeon General's office to the effect that far less men are dying of war wounds than in World War I, means much to us here in Rochester and Monroe County for it is a promise that more of our sons will be home with us again.

"We are told that one of the greatest reasons for this lower death rate is the discovery of blood plasma, and its use on the battlefield.

"For this plasma we can thank millions of blood donors over the nation, and the American Red Cross which has been, since before Pearl Harbor, the collection agency. Like its work in teaching First Aid, and in serving a community in time of disaster, the Red Cross has done, this task well."

AVERS RELIGION ULTIMATE BASIS FOR LASTING PEACE

CLEVELAND.—Religion is the ultimate foundation of an enduring peace because it is the basis and interpreter of the moral law, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John A. Ryan, Director of the Department of Social Action, National Catholic Welfare Conference, told a Cleveland audience. The moral law, he pointed out, proclaims that all men have equal rights to life, liberty and the material requisites for the reasonable development of personality.

Asserting that at least 100 statements on the bases of a just and durable peace have been issued from religious circles, Msgr. Ryan quoted from and commented upon some of the most important declarations made by Pope Pius XII.

Dictionary Defines Catholic Terms

MILWAUKEE.—"A Concise Catholic Dictionary," containing simple definitions of 1,500 Catholic words, with basic derivations and pronunciations, for use in the home, school, library or clerical office, has been published here by the Bruce Publishing Company.

The work has been compiled by Robert C. Broderick of Milwaukee for the better understanding of the language of the Catholic Faith. Appendices contain 350 words and phrases from foreign languages, with literal translations; a list of the Ecumenical Councils, together with the doctrines they defined; common Church abbreviations and a complete list of Popes and the dates of their reigns.

Land For Indians

QUITO.—The Ecuadorian Ministry of Social Security and Labor has publicly thanked the Diocese of Ibarra for land which it gave for the construction of houses for Indians. Dr. Julio Tobar Donoso, President of Ecuadorian Catholic Action, the press informs, also ceded his rights as lessee of the land involved.

9 Nazis Captured, Promotion Won

RICHMOND, Ind.—It was a case of two American soldiers, each armed with a pistol, against ten German soldiers, armed with three machine guns, two rifles and four mortars. The Americans won out and one of them, Earl Keiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keiser, of St. Boniface's Church, Ralph, Ind., was promoted to a first lieutenant and was decorated with the Silver Star. He and his companion, a sergeant, captured nine of the Germans. His wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Keiser, is a parishioner of St. Thomas's Church, here.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENT

Lawyer: "But even if a man is on his hands and knees in the middle of the road, does that prove he is drunk?"

Policeman: "No, sir, it does not. But this one was trying to roll up the white line."
