LOUIS STELLA PROMOTED

By MARY C. BROSNAN

OWEGO—Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Stella, of Delphine St., have received word from their elder son, Louis Stella of the U. S. Navy that he has been promoted to the rank of Machinist Mate, Engineers, third class which promotion will give him a petty officer's rank.

The young sailor has been "somewhere overseas" for more than nine months. He enlisted in the Navy on Oct. 27, 1942 and received his boot training at the Naval Training Station at Sampson. Later he spent 16 weeks at Great Lakes and from there was transferred to Norfolk, Va. His younger brother, Anthony Stella, recently enlisted in the Navy and now is stationed at Sampson, N. Y. Stella has two brothers-in-law who are in the U. S. Army and both are now stationed in England.

MRS. ELLEN DOOLEY

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen Margaret Dooley, widow of William Dooley, was held in St. John's Church in Newark Valley on Wednesday, March 8. The Rev. Alex J. Slee, pastor, sang the Requiem Mass and burial was in St. Joseph's Cemetery. She spent several months each year in this village and well-known here. She is survived by several nieces and nephews.

SGT. WALPOLE REPORTS

Sgt. Donald E. Walpole who recently returned from nineteen months service in Africa and Sicily and who had spent a three weeks furlough in this village and in Binghamton, reported on Sunday to Atlantic City for further orders. During Sgt. Walpole's furlough, his mother, Mrs. Mathew Walpole, died following an illness of only a few days. The funeral was held on Wednesday morning of last week in St. Patrick's Church, the Rev. Michael L. Hynes, pastor, officiating.

LADIES OF CHARITY--

Jottings Here and There

Employment and Vocational Guidance Committee officially became the Committee of St. Rose of Lima at the regular monthly meeting of the group on Tuesday, Mar. 7. Theirs will be the first Memorial of Catholic Action dedicated to the memory of the late Sister Rose Alice, Superintendent of St. Joseph's Hospital.

Added to their regular program will be a special Hospital Project of Service to the men patients at St. Joseph's. Regular visiting, distribution of Catholic and approved current literature, and other acts of Christian kindness will be sponsored by this committee under the leadership of the Rev. Philip McGhan, Chaplain at St. Joseph's.

The regular Cooking Class and business meeting for the members of the Committee of the Infant of Prague was held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in Fassett Hall.

The Study Club for this group under the leadership of Miss Leona Geney met at her home on Tuesday at 8 o'clock.

Red Cross Meeting was scheduled for Wednesday and Sewing on Thursday. Both in Fassett Hall at 1 o'clock on their respective days. The latter group will start work on the uniforms for Camp Villa Maria.

The regular monthly meeting with a St. Patrick's Day surprise—for the Committee of Our Lady of Good Counsel was scheduled for Thursday at 8 o'clock.

What will be their next project? The Food Sale held recently netted a good sum for the Committee Treasury.

Friendly Visiting Committee Meeting was Tuesday at 7 o'clock in the Catholic Charities Office. This Committee dedicated to the Vincentian principles of neighborly visiting functions quietly and effectively, bringing untold pleasure and sunshine to many lonely souls.

There's a Committee for you and you, Catholic women here and there. Won't you come to our Mass and Communion Breakfast on Sunday, Mar. 19, and learn more of what we are doing. You may want to join such an active organization, whose members are busy in times of war and peace.

A total of 1,701,250,000 cigarettes were purchased last year to be distributed as gifts to American troops.
