United States of Europe?
Since Britain and Russia hesitate it is up to American public opinion to take the lead toward a federal and democratic solution of the European question. As soon as the people of Europe are able to speak they will greet this idea with enthusiasm, just as the Polish underground has recently proclaimed European federation as the main goal of its foreign policy. The will of the people of Europe, backed by the people of America, will finally decide in favor of democratic, neutral and peaceful United States of Europe.—Richard C. Koberg in "The Communist."
