

Our thoughts are leaders by which we climb toward the things which hang above us—our ideals, whatever they are.

And there was another Rome who thought Job was a doctor because the minister talked on the "patients" of Job.

Abets Soviet Attack On Polish Government

LONDON — Prime Minister Winston Churchill's recent pledge that Britain will go "all the way with Russia," prompted and encouraged Soviet Russia's latest abusive attack on the Polish Government as intimated by "The Universe," Catholic weekly of London.

The London paper contends that whether or not the Polish Government meets Russian demands for dismissal of its commander-in-chief and alterations in the Cabinet, it would make little difference, since Russia's claims on Polish territory are "fixed and unalterable."

"The Universe" states: "The Soviet Government, judging rightly that all that mattered in Mr. Churchill's speech was his declaration that we shall go 'all the way with Russia,' has, of course, rejected the Polish proposal, indulged in a new abusive attack on the Polish Government, demanded the dismissal of the Commander-in-Chief and alterations in the Cabinet. If all this is done it will make no difference. Russia's claims are fixed and unalterable. The Poles, it is proposed, may recompense themselves for the theft of their territory by stealing Germany's. This letter proposal has outraged correspondents of 'The Times,' who consider the dismemberment of a small ally quite natural but the same process applied to a large country immoral. Meanwhile the editor of the 'Nineteenth Century' pertinently reminds us that if we break our word to Poland, for whom we started the war, it will become retroactively an unjust war. These things are being said by non-Catholics. Catholics can hardly be expected to say or to feel less.

"When a war ceases to be a struggle for survival it can be justified—it can cease to be sinful—only if it is in a just cause. The people of this country were told in 1939 that we were fighting to establish an international order in which the Pope's point could be realized and the life of large nations would not mean the death of small ones. The mental confusion of our realists is as evident as the moral. In one breath we are told that Germany is to be made incapable of renewed aggression and in the next that Europe must be carved up on the assumption that such aggression is a continuing danger. Poland, Finland and the Baltic States are to be sacrificed to protect the strongest Power in Europe from a disarmed and dismembered Germany."

Msgr. O'Toole Dies in Capital

WASHINGTON — The Rt. Rev. Msgr. G. Barry O'Toole, Professor of Philosophy at the Catholic University of America and co-founder of the Catholic University of Peking, China, here, died unexpectedly of a heart attack in his room at the university on Sunday, March 26. He was in his fifty-eighth year.

Sword Pierced

The Feast of Our Lady's Seven Sorrows is March 31. We are now trying to gather funds for a Memorial Chapel of Our Lady of Sorrows in the Holy Land, in honor of our fallen soldier boys. Can you help? We shall need seven hundred and fifty dollars altogether.

DO'S and DON'TS

Useful Hints for Better Service From Your Electrical Appliances!

DO
HANDLE WITH CARE. Until their manufacture is renewed on a large scale, appliances may be difficult to replace. So, use them carefully to insure their faithful performance, but be careful not to drop or break them.

DON'T
OVERHEAT. If your automatic toaster overheats, it indicates that the heat control needs adjustment. Take it to your electrical dealer. Sometimes parts are out of stock, but most appliances can be repaired satisfactorily within a reasonably short time nowadays.

DO
KEEP IN USE. You need your time-saving household appliances more than ever these days. Protect cords from twisting, breaking or pulling out. When disconnecting, grasp the plug firmly—not the cord. For repairs, see your electrical appliance dealer.

DON'T
HANDLE WITH WET HANDS. Avoid short circuits. Always disconnect when cleaning. Don't place electrical appliances in water. Remove crumbs from toaster frequently. Don't shake to remove dirt or crumbs—bad for heating element.

Conserve Electricity — Do not waste it!

STRUGGLE UP HILL FROM MOUNT OLIVET

Jesus knelt in agony on the Mount of Olives. Then He struggled up the hill to Calvary. Surely a priest trained in the little Syrian Seminary on the Mount of Olives has many memories to make him a zealous apostle, even a martyr.

Thank you for helping Father Chibas-Lasalle and his Seminary on the Mount of Olives. Perhaps you do not know that many seminarians leave there and "go up the hill" to the Syrian Seminary at Charle. Here is what Father Malke, the rector of Charle, tells us without any dressing.

"My seminary gives me great consolation. The students are model seminarians. Three will become priests on Holy Saturday, thank God."

The only great trouble is that these three young priests are wanted in four countries—Syria, Iraq, Lebanon and the Holy Land. That's nearly a million square miles!

"You say: Why haven't you more?"

"I send? Because we cannot support the students who apply. In fact, these three young priests will go begging all their lives."

Father Malke is frank enough about his poor Seminary at Charle. It seems that his students do know something of the struggle up the hill from the Mount of Olives.

Here's a chance to make a Passion Week gift: (1) to these three newly ordained priests, to start them off with some hope; (2) to the Seminary at Charle, where a student can be supported for one hundred dollars a year. Father Malke says that six hundred dollars will help him to struggle for a year.

LADDER

Did you ever hear of St. John Climacus, whose Feast we celebrate on March 30? Climacus means "ladder." St. John the Ladder wrote a holy book, "The Ladder of Perfection." Up the ladder of life to the Cross is our way of perfection. Can you send seventeen dollars for a crucifix and candlesticks?

MOTHER'S HANDS

Mary watched the soldiers as they cast lots for the seamless robe she had woven with her own hands. Members of our Monks Guild surely vestments for other "Christis in His and Mary's Land," by sending one dollar a month. Won't you join?

IN HIS STEPS

The bloody footprints of the martyrs keep the marks of Christ's sacred feet fresh in the world. As a parting Lenten gift give the Stations of the Cross to a poor Near East chapel for ten dollars, or the anti-memorial for five. This beautiful linen cloth, with the faces of the martyrs, is used at every Mass.

SHADOWS

Our Lord showed St. Juliana a bright moon with a dark spot and He said that this was due to the absence of a special feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Hence, Corpus Christi. But there was the first feast, Holy Thursday. Receive Communion. Then give a ciborium for ten, or a golden pyx for five to a Near East chapel.

ONE KIND

Our Lord asked for only one kind of Communion—the Communion of Reparation—through St. Margaret Mary. A little child makes the best Communion of Reparation for this sinful world. Why not send five dollars to outfit one of our little mission children for first Holy Communion?

BETRAYAL

Judas could commit the great sin of the betrayal because he had sinned in many little things before. Let us too fail, let us build up a store of little kindnesses, like a two dollar gift for a sanctuary bell or an eight dollar gift for a censer and boat.

INFORMATION PLEASE!

We shall be glad to send information on the various ceremonies of the Eastern churches. A penny postcard will receive a prompt answer.

OPEN

The Cenacle where Our Lord offered the First Mass is owned by Mohammedans and open to Christians only on Holy Thursday. Do you wonder, then why we ask you to help the Near East missions, the lands where Christ and His Apostles preached? Please join our Student Support Club, sending one dollar a month or five a hundred dollars for a seminary.

HOLY DYING

All holy deaths must be like Christ's death. Our missionaries in the Near East live martyrs' lives for Christ. The poor Sisters could use many a Lenten gift to help them make more sacrifices. Could you give sixty dollars to support a novice for a year?
