Programs Listed For Holy Week Over NBC Network

NEW YORK. — A challenging series of broadcasts during Holy Week highlights the National Broadcasting Company's round of programs in observance of the Easter season.

The special Holy Week series presents the following speakers:

"The Church and the Cross" (Monday, Apr. 3, 10:15-11:00 A. M., EWT)—Dom William Michael Ducey, O.S.B., executive secretary, The Liturgical Conference, Inc., Chicago, speaking from New York.

"Man and the Cross" (Wednesday, Apr. 5, 10:15-11:00 A. M., EWT)—Clive Stapleu Lewis, fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, England, famed author of "The Screwtape Letters" and other recent books. He speaks from London.

"The Passion of Our Lady" (Thursday, Apr. 6, 10:15-11:00 A.M., EWT)—Margaret Webster, distinguished producer and actress, reads the late Charles Peguy's poem, published by Pantheon Books, Inc., New York, in a translation by Ann and Julian Green. This is the second consecutive year this poem has been read over NBC during Holy Week. Organ accompaniment is by Avenir de Monfred, former assistant organist at the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris.

"The Seventh Word to the Cross" (Good Friday, Apr. 7, 10:45-11:00 P. M., EWT)—The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen delivers a special address as part of his regular Catholic Hour series.

Saturday, Apr. 8—The famed choir of the Montezuma Seminary of Las Vegas, New Mexico, which was first introduced on the NBC network last Christmas, will contribute a special program of Easter music in the Gregorian style on Holy Saturday afternoon, 1:30-1:45 P. M., EWT). This seminary provides training for the priesthood to Mexican Seminarians.

Msgr. Sheen delivers a talk on "Easter" on the Catholic Hour program (6:00-6:30 P. M., EWT). The choir of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament in New York is under the direction of Warren E. Foley. In observance of Easter Sunday, special orchestral accompaniment is provided.
