St. Agnes High School Students To Present Life of St. Agnes

The age-old story depicting the life of the child-martyr, St. Agnes, will be presented in choral speech by girls of St. Agnes High School at the Auditorium Theater on Wednesday, Apr. 26, at 8:30 P. M.

Leading role will be taken by Ann Zugelder and that of Procus, her lover, by Mary Catherine Closser. Others in the cast will include Suzanne Tierney and Hilda Hasbrouck.

Added interesting features of the St. Agnes High School Festival will comprise a romantic ballet, violin and harp solos and a string ensemble. Classical and modern songs will be rendered by the school choir.

This program will also mark the first public appearance of the newly formed St. Agnes High School Band, the only girls' band that has been organized in the high schools in Rochester, the announcement states.

Much enthusiasm has been shown by the students in preparing this festival and all their patrons can be assured of an enjoyable evening.

This is a step toward regulation of public guides in the interests of visitors.

Mercy High Singers, Orchestra Set Concert To 'Ease War Tension'

Annual Glee Club and Orchestra Concert of Our Lady of Mercy High School is scheduled for Tuesday, Apr. 25, in the school auditorium.

The Glee Club will be accompanied by piano, organ and orchestra. Seniors Catherine Clark and Kathleen Zimmer will accompany at the piano while Rosemary Kramer will be at the organ.

According to Sister Mary Margaret, head of the Music Department at the school, a diversified but colorful program will serve as a refresher to war-weary concert goers. "The purpose of the concert is to help the audience combat the sadness and ease the tension ever increasing with the continuance and progress of war."

Miss Monica Servas will direct the Glee Club while the orchestra will be under the baton of Mr. Joseph Pierce.

Parish Women Raise $650 at Bake Sale

CORNING — The Rev. John A. Smith, pastor of St. Mary's Church, announced Sunday that the sum of $650 was realized from the annual bake sale, held Easter Saturday morning at a local store under the auspices of the women of the parish.

The amount, Father Smith reported, is the largest ever raised from any similar project in the parish. Mrs. Mary Abel and Mrs. Julia Arnold were co-chairmen of the sale.

Fire Razes Church

ENFIELD, N. S.—The 87-year-old St. Bernard's Church here was destroyed by fire, which broke out during the 11 o'clock Sunday Mass. Damage will exceed $25,000. Rev. J. J. Devine, parish priest, was saying Mass when he heard the crackling of the flames. He immediately advised the congregation of 100 persons to file out of the church in orderly manner, taking with them whatever furnishings and fixtures which could be readily removed. Father Devine carried the Blessed Sacrament to safety.

Teacher: "Junior, explain to the class what hypocrite is."

Junior: "A hypocrite is a boy who comes to school with a smile on his face."
