War Bond Drive Role
Of K. of C. To Be Planned in Elmira

NEW YORK—War activities will have a leading part in the sessions of the 40th annual New York State Council, Knights of Columbus convention opening Friday, in Elmira. State Deputy Stephen P. Cushing announced early this week. The Councils of the State will participate in the Fifth War Loan Drive, he stated.

Grazed at the success of the state membership effort, State Deputy Cushing announced that the New York State Council has made its membership quota for the year as of May 12.

Eight Catholic College Scholarships will be awarded at the Convention as a result of competitive examinations held at various centers throughout the state on May 6. The Hospital Association of the State K. of C. at Gabriel's has cared for more members of the order this year than for many years past, due principally, the State Deputy says, to the fact that Selective Service Board examinations revealed tubercular conditions in many men who did not know they were afflicted.

Plans have been completed for the convention by the Elmira council committee.

Formal opening of the convention is the Requiem Mass for knights who died in service, to be offered in the presence of Bishop Kearney on Friday morning at St. Patrick's Church at 10 A. M. by the Rt. Rev. Mgr. Francis P. Connolly, state chaplain.

The Legend
Of the Tear

A certain rich man, about to die, directed that all his possessions should be sold and the proceeds invested in one large diamond which he could hide in the hollow of his hand, and thus carry his wealth to heaven. His treasurer took steps to fulfill the charge without delay.

Meanwhile the master fell into a deep sleep, and dreamed he stood before the gate of Paradise. But when he sought to enter he found that he had lost his treasure somewhere on the way, and fell to lamenting.

Said an angel who drew near: "Why do you lament?"

"I have lost my diamond," answered the man.

"We should call that drop where we abide," replied the angel. "The memory of one kindly act on earth would avail you more here. And have you none?"

"Alas, I know of none."

"Not one?"

"I dried an orphan's tears one day," said the man hesitatingly.

"That tear is here," answered the angel, "hold up for you. Be bold it."

And as the astonished man gazed upon the tear, it shone so brightly and shed so gentle a light upon his soul that he wept with joy to think that he had lost his paltry diamond and found so great a treasure.

On awakening from sleep, he recalled his faithful steward, and directed him to distribute all his possessions among the poor and needy. And soon thereafter he died in great peace. The Legionian

Advocates Only Way To Escape Enslavement

MILWAUKEE.—Warning that the only way man can escape enslavement is by clinging to the principles of the Declaration of Independence, Father Reinhard W. Kettler, president of the Catholic Free Association, urged sacrifice for God. He declared that Christians must never give up their principles.

Well-trained GHOST works work!

THE local Society of Spooks and Spectres blames us for unemployment among its members.

They say a ghost has got to have long dark halls to work in and flickering candles to blow out. How can any self-respecting wraith rattle chains or utter mournful moans in a brightly lighted room with the radio playing swing music?

Seriously, today's children have little chance to learn the fear of the dark that once oppressed their elders. They don't know how shivery blackness can be. They never stumbled blindly for a match or felt tremulous relief as the lamp wick caught flame and slowly drove back the shadows.

Who's afraid of misty apparitions — with reassuring light always instantly at hand? And just as electricity has all but banished haunted houses, so it has laid the ghosts of many household jobs that once were done by hand.

In fact, electricity is so common, so constant today, that most people take it for granted. But the folks who work for the electric power companies can't do that. It's their hard work, careful planning and good business management that keep electric service friendly, dependable and cheap — even in wartime.
