CORNING—Frank J. Ryan, 311 E. Second Street, was the proud host to his daughter and three sons, all members of the armed forces, during the past week. A happy circumstance permitted the four to receive furloughs at the same time.

They are: Staff Sgt. Ebenezer E. Ryan, stationed with the WAC at Camp Meigs, Standish; Staff Sgt. William F. Ryan, in training with the Infantry at Camp McClelland, Ala.; Staff Sgt. Robert E. Ryan, recently returned from England where he served with the U. S. Air Force; Technician Fifth Grade Thomas E. Ryan who has just returned after service in the Aleutians.

—Capt. Charles J. Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwartz, 68 W. Third St., a veteran of two years and a half in the Pacific area, as a member of an artillery outfit, is spending a 21 day furlough with his parents.

This young man, a graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School and Corning Free Academy, was an employe of Corning Glass Works where he entered the service in February, 1942. He was sent overseas in May of that year and took part in the campaign of Guadalcanal, Meinda, as well as on other islands. He will report at Raleigh, N. C. at the completion of his leave.

—Francis A. Phillip, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loretto Phillip, 333 E. First St., has been promoted to the rank of sergeant in the Marine Corps at the Marine Corps Air Station, Santa Barbara, Calif., where he is in training with the chemical warfare section of the Marine air group.

A graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School Sgt. Phillip attended Corning Free Academy. He enlisted in December 1942 and received recent training at Parris Island, S. C. He underwent specialized training at San Diego, Calif., and at Edgewood Arsenal, Md.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah F. Healy, 264 Chestnut St., have received word that their daughter, Lt. Florence Healy, of the U. S. Army Nurse Corps, has arrived safely in England.

A graduate of St. Mary's Parochial School and Corning Free Academy—Lt. Healy attended Cortland Normal School for a year before entering training at St. Joseph's Hospital Training School for Nurses, Elmira. Before enlisting she was a member of the nursing staff at Corning Hospital.

Two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Bryan, 235 State St., are following in the footsteps of their father, who served with the U. S. Navy during World War I.

Seaman E. Robert John O'Bryan is now in training for duty with the amphibious forces aboard an LST—Landing Ship, Tank. He is stationed at the Amphibious Training Base at Camp Bradford, Va.

Family Officer S/o Thomas O'Bryan is serving in the South Pacific. Both boys are graduates of St. Mary's Parochial School and attended Corning Free Academy.

that their son, Edwin Menners, has been promoted from pharmacist to chief pharmacist in the U. S. Navy at his base in Shoemaker, Calif.

The promotion was awarded in the young man upon his return to California after a leave spent in Shoemaker was his bride, the former Miss Kay Cull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cull of Elmira. Their marriage took place at St. Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, on July 12.
