Academy of Sacred Heart Opens Year on Sept. 11

Academy of the Sacred Heart will reopen for its nineteenth scholastic year on Monday, Sept. 11. Pupils are asked to report between two and five o'clock to attend to all preliminary arrangements, so that regular classes may begin on Tuesday morning. The classes will start after the Mass of the Holy Ghost, to be celebrated at 8:30 A. M. in the convent chapel by His Excellency, Bishop Kearney.

The academy was first opened in 1855, in the Ellwood house on North St. Paul Street, with an enrollment of 35 pupils. The growth of the school soon exceeded the capacity of this house, and in 1863 the present property at 8 Prince Street was acquired.

Three wings have since been added to the original house, the last being a complete classroom building, connected by a bridge with the main structure. The gymnasium, built in 1931, is a separate building.

The school is run according to the country day school plan, with classes until 5:15, followed by sports under a competent instructor. The large garden includes hockey and baseball fields, tennis court, ice-skating rink and toboggan slide, with special recreational equipment for the kindergarten and primary grades. Attractive dormitories and private rooms provide accommodation for a limited number of weekly and permanent boarders.

The classes extend from the primary grade through the four years of high school, including a complete college preparatory course, with optional subjects for students who desire a more general course.

Good Counsel Group Leads In Record Blood Donation

Blood donors set a new record for the Red Cross Blood Donor Center at the special Labor Day opening, by contributing 250 pints, nearly half again as many as the original goal of 170, it is reported.

Special mention for individual work and donor response is due Mrs. Theodore Florack, chairman of the Blood Donors Committee for Our Lady of Good Counsel Altar Society, a group of 34 donors which represented the largest contribution from any one organization.

"The enthusiasm of those giving their blood to save the lives of our soldiers is really something to see. A visit to the Red Cross Center will soon convince you that it is a mission of love for your fellowman," stated the spokesman for the committee in charge.

Mr. J. Allan Doyle, chairman of the Blood Donors sponsoring committee, extended his grateful appreciation to both donors and committee workers.

2 Couples Note Silver Weddings with Mass

The twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Schell and Mr. and Mrs. Karl M. Otto was celebrated Monday, Sept. 4 at an anniversary dinner held at the Schell residence at 3301 Edgemore Drive. An anniversary Mass was celebrated at 8 A. M. by the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke at Mother of Sorrows Church.

Mrs. Schell and Mrs. Otto are sisters and both were united in marriage at a double wedding ceremony performed by the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. Arthur A. Hughes at Holy Rosary Church.

About forty guests paid honor to the celebrants including three priests who assisted at the original ceremony; they were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William F. Borgah, pastor of Saint Monica's Church, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. George V. Burns, pastor of the Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral and Father O'Rourke, pastor of Our Mother of Sorrows Church. Mr. and Mrs. Schell have two sons; William, a member of the Air Corps at Naples, Florida, and Leo, a student at Aquinas Institute.

OPA Asks Housewives To Complain More

The OPA wants people, housewives particularly, to complain more. Mrs. Ruth Hitchcock, who has been a price aide connected with the local OPA office since May, says that "if housewives were more price conscious and would report price ceiling violations promptly, we would hear fewer black market whisperings and rumors."

Mrs. Hitchcock calls on seven of the 26 War Price and Rationing Boards in the Buffalo District, in an effort to help the boards solve the price problems that come up without taking them to the headquarters office. The difficulties that must be taken to headquarters she reports for action.

Volunteer price assistants to call on merchants, explain new price regulations and help them to comply with the law on price ceilings are being sought by every War Price and Rationing Board in the district.

Arrest Bishop Who Refused to Say Mass For Vichy Official

NEW YORK (NC)—The Most Rev. Louis Rastoull, Bishop of Limoges, was arrested by the Gestapo in July and transferred to Chateauroux, the British radio revealed, according to a report received here at the Office of War Information.

The Bishop's arrest, the source said, followed his refusal to offer Mass for Philippe Henriot, Vichy propaganda minister executed by patriots in June. His Excellency refused the broadcast stated, because the Gestapo had prevented him from holding a service in memory of the victims of the Oradour-sur-Glane massacre in Haute Vienne.
