exile source de log it more after all. After bessoaning the fact, last week, that we seedom write about the ladies any more, the first person we heard about this week was Lieut. Mary V. Andrews. Mary founed the Army Nurses Corps last April. She received her basic training at Atlantic City and Fort Brage and in July was sent overseas and is now in England. After graduating from Middletown Delaware schools, Mary started training at St. Joseph's Hospital and was graduated from there in 1938. She then attended Nazareth College in Rochester for one year before going on special duty in hospitals in New York City and Washington. Mary is the daughter of Mrs. Agnes Andrews of 314 Lovell Avenue. Her family are communicants at Our Lady of Lourdes Church.

Our next call was at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Flynn, 341 Irvine Place whose two sons Bob and Jack are in the Air Corps. Staff Sergeant Robert El Flynn enlisted in December 1941, right after Pearl Harbor. Bob received his basic training at Kessler Field, Mississippi and was sent from there to Trinidad where he remained for eighteen months. From Trinkdad he was sent back to the States and stationed at Mitchell Field where he attended Curnery School for nine weeks and completed the course at Fremont, Nebraska, In February of this year he was sent to England and is now in France. Bob was graduated from St. Patrick's School and the Academy and worked at the American Bridge Company before entering the serv-

S/Sgt. John Flynn entered the service in January 1943. He is a Radio Operator and received his training at Scott Field, Ill. He also attended Gunnery School at Las Vegas, Nevada and after completing the course was sent to the South Pacific and is stationed at New Guinea at present, Jack's unit was flown to New Guinea by Air days in the Hawsilan Islands and Jack took time out to buy some grass skirts for his sisters. On the trip from Hawaii to New Guinea the Transport was forced down on Christmas Island and the men had to remain there three weeks before the plane could be repaired. Jack was also graduated from St. Patrick's School and the Academy and was employed at the Eclipse Machine Division before entering the service. The Flynn family are members of St. Patrick's Parish.

From St. Anthony's Parish we gathered some interesting news about the Capericele boys. Corporal Technician Peter R. Caporiccio oral Technician Peter R. aportecio entered the service in Sopt. 1942. He received his basic training at Camp Shelby, Miss., and other camps in Florida and North and South Carolina and in June of this year was sent to England. Peto is with the 243rd Field Artillery Battalion and his family tells us it is the same battallion and field artillery that his dad was with in the First World War and he has seen action in some of the places where his dad fought. Pete says there is a Chaplain with his unit and he can attend Mass regularly. He also says he likes both England and France and the people of both countries can't seem to do enough for the American boys. Pete has been awarded medals for ling of a jeep. He was graduated

Let Catholic Pupils Use Public School Facilities

SANTA FE, N. M.-The voca- in turn cooperate with the war tional education program facilities production program advocated by of the State public school system will be made available to Catholic school pupils throughout New Mexico, under a plan announced by the Rev. William T. Bradley, superintendent of schools for the Santa Fe archdiocese, and Frank Wingberly, state director of vocational education.

The state director has placed the physical properties of the public schools at the disposal of all Catholic school pupils. Principles of the Catholic institutions will arrange schedules with the public school officials of their respective locali-ties which will permit the saco-chial school pupils to use the public achool spens and equipment.
