AND THE MISSIONS

'Patsy' Clate Will Reopen Homestead Tavern, Sept. 20

Announcement of the re-opening of Homestead Tavern on Wednesday, Sept. 20, has been made by Patrick "Patsy" Clate who has taken over this popular eating establishment that has been closed for the past several months.

The interior of the Homestead Tavern has been completely redecorated and a new feature is the Terrace Room that will be used exclusively as a business men's grill—assuring complete quiet and privacy for business discussions.

Mr. Clate announces a new departure in the serving of dinners with a complete menu including steaks, chops, chicken and lobster as well as Italian foods.

The Barbecue sandwiches with which the Tavern built such a fine reputation in the past will again be served in the same appetizing manner, also available will be the soda fountain service.

Mr. Clate announces that he has engaged the services of James Forlina as chef. Mr. Fortina was formerly associated with Stouffers and Childs in New York City in the same capacity.

Diplomacy Fails

Diplomacy can not bring about peace. The diplomats have failed miserably in this war. The diplomats will fail again if God is forgotten.

Without God there can be no security. Without God there can be no peace.—Catholic Review, Baltimore.
