Accepts Navy Certificate

HONORING THREE of his students' pastors who have entered the armed forces, a Navy Certificate of Honor is presented to Edward T. Meagher, pastor, Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, by Lieut. A. P. O'Neill, U. S. Navy.

Navy Honors Parish Giving Three Priests to Services

In colorful ceremonies honoring Church Recognition Day, proclaimed by Rear Admiral William R. Monroe, Commandant of the Third Naval District, the Army-Navy Certificate of Honor was awarded Our Lady of Good Counsel Church, for providing three chaplains for the nation's armed forces.

Immediately following the 40 hours' devotion services at Good Counsel, Sunday, Oct. 8, the parade and massing of the colors was held, with over 600 parishioners and representatives of various local veterans' organizations witnessing.

A letter of commendation, addressed to the Rev. Edward T. Meagher, Pastor, was read to the congregation by Lieut. A. P. O'Neill, USNR, of the local Office of Naval Officer Procurement, as representative of the armed forces and on behalf of Secretary of the Navy, James Forrestal.

Lieutenant O'Neill expressed the gratitude of the Navy to the Church and congregation for re-lending their priests, the Rev. Gerald Kelly, the Rev. William F. Nolan and the Rev. Raymond G. Helzel, for their country's service.

In his address, the Lieutenant said in part: "The purpose of this ceremony is to assure the folks at home that the Navy is vitally interested in the spiritual welfare of its personnel both ashore and afloat. The Navy needs men and men need God. Put them both together and you will see that the Navy needs men of God." Father Meagher, in his acceptance of the award, said that he

Chaplain Loughlin Honored in Award to St. Bernard Seminary

The Certificate of Honor of the Navy Department has been presented to St. Bernard's Seminary, in honor of Marine Chaplain John J. Loughlin, former faculty member.

Accompanying the Certificate was a letter signed by Secretary of the Navy, James Forrestal, commending St. Bernard's for its "patriotic sacrifices" and presenting the testimonial "in permanent evidence of St. Bernard's contribution to the benefit of the religious life of the men and women of our armed forces."

"It is a matter of deep personal satisfaction to me," wrote Mr. Forrestal, "to be able thus to express the appreciation and thanks of the Navy Department and myself."

Chaplain Loughlin, a native of Elmira, was with the first wave of assault troops to hit the beaches of Tarawa. For his outstanding service there, he was awarded the Legion of Merit.

I would not waste the spring-time of my youth in idle dalliance; I would plant rich seeds to blossom in my manhood, and bear fruit when I am old.—Billhouse.
