Home Said Basis Of Patriotism

NANTUAQ, Ont. — Emphasis was placed on the home as the foundation of religion and patriotism at the thirteenth National Congress of the Young Women's Branch of Christian Catholic Action, held at Tinton and attended by 1,000 delegates.

At the Mass which closed the Congress, His Excellency the Most Rev. Maurice Séguin, Papal Nuncio to Canada, exhorted the delegates to fortify their virtues as a pledge of "united, indissoluble and holy" nations.

"We should serve God," Archbishop Séguin asked, "why the Lord has made woman the creator of the child, the transmitter of man and the harvest of charity?" He warned against currents and forces that tend to take children away from the care and guidance of their mothers and lead them into the streets, where they become "human caricatures, thinking only of distraction and enjoyment, in turn provocative of human and even licentiousness."

"The future of a people," he added, "depends upon the solidity and vitality of their homes."

CHURCHMAN.

"The world must be conquered, souls must be gained for the Kingdom of Love, that Jesus, the King of Love, may reign," Fr. Malou added. The most heroic witness is shown in the face of unjust rebukes.

VETERAN SYRACUSE PASTOR, FR. W. F. DOUGHERTY DIES

SYRACUSE, N.C. — The Rev. William F. Dougherty, who died in St. Joseph's Hospital here, Oct. 28, observed on Jan. 2, last, the 22-nd anniversary of St. Vincent de Paul Parish in this city, which he founded and which has been the first and only pastor. He would have observed the 25-th anniversary of his organization on Dec. 31.

Father Dougherty was attended Niagara University, St. Michael's College in Toronto and St. Joseph's Seminary in Troy, where he became an assistant pastor of the church of St. John in Evangelist.

It is estimated that 2700 languages, exclusive of minor dialects, are spoken in the world.
