

Tide of Abbot

Did you know that it was St. Benedict who definitely fixed the title of abbot, given to the superior of a monastery of monks...

On University Snobs

There were audacious young free-thinkers who adored nothing or nothing, except perhaps, Hobbes and the Koran and pointed for the day when the pale snare of priest should shrink and dwindle away before the indignation of an enlightened world.

1944 Catholic Literary Award Bestowed on Dr. Wm. T. Walsh

NEW YORK.—(NO)—The Annual Catholic Literary Award bestowed by the Gallery of Living Catholic Authors was presented to Dr. William Thomas Walsh at Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart on Oct. 23, the eve of the Feast of Christ the King, when the Award is annually made.

Stole Paradise This robber stole Paradise! No one before him ever received such a promise not Abraham, or Isaac, or Jacob, or Moses, or the prophets, or apostles the thief pressed in before all these! But his faith also surpassed theirs! He saw Jesus tormented, and adored Him as if He were in glory. He saw Him nailed to a cross, and petitioned Him as if He were unshamed. He saw Him condemned, and asked a favour of Him as of a King. O admirable thief! thou didst see a crucified man, and thou didst proclaim a God!—St. John Chrysostom.

ONE EXCEPTION With one exception every child of Adam born into this world, is stained with the guilt of original sin. That exception is the Mother of Christ, Mary Immaculate, who from the first moment of her existence, was absolutely sinless. This doctrine is called THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

the Foot of the Cross, is to give recognition to living writers. Catholic authors from all over the world are elected to membership by the Board of Governors on the basis of literary merit. Their original manuscripts, autographed photographs and books are preserved in Gallery Hall, Webster Groves, Mo. Present membership is more than 300.

Nuns Under Fire Evacuate 3,300 Patients in Holland VENRAY, the Netherlands.—(NO)—Amid the burst of German mortar shells and the roar of British artillery fire, a staff of nuns helped in the evacuation of 3,300 mental patients here.

Both these institutions are packed with small holes, windows and without heating, lighting or cooling facilities.
