N. Y. Jesuit To Preach At Old St. Mary's Church

The Rev. John J. Kehoe, S.J., Director of the Jesuit Mission Band, New York City, will preach the Forty Hours Sermons and also a Triduum in preparation for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception at Old St. Mary's Church, South Street, the Rev. Dr. George P. Kettell, pastor, has announced. Forty Hours devotions in honor of the Blessed Sacrament will be held at St. Mary's Church on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday (Dec. 3, 4, 5) evenings. Father Kehoe will deliver the sermon each evening at services beginning at 8 o'clock. All evening Perpetual Novena services will begin at 7:30 P. M. during next week. On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings (Dec. 6, 7, 8) of next week, Father Kehoe will conduct and preach a Triduum in Honor of Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception, whose Feast is celebrated on December 8. Services on each evening of the Triduum will also begin at 8 o'clock. The Triduum in honor of the Immaculate Conception, who is the Patroness of the United States, will be dedicated to Pope Pius' special intention of a "just and lasting peace," Dr. Kettell stated. Morning Masses during the Forty Hours and the Triduum will be at 6, 7 and 8 o'clock.

Mass at St. Michael's To Honor Servicemen

A High Mass will be celebrated at St. Michael's Church on Sunday, Dec. 3, by Rev. Arthur F. Florack, for all members of Commandery 44, Knights of St. John in the armed forces of the country. There are thirty men and one woman serving at present. A special prayer will be offered for the repose of the soul of Staff Sergeant Melvin Smallwood, who was killed in action in Belgium recently. Sgt. Smallwood was the first member of Commandery 44 to be killed in this or the last World War. All members of the families of those in service are invited to be present at this Mass. Uniformed Knights and members of Ladies Auxiliary 206 will meet in the parish hall at 10:30 A. M. and march into the church.

ARCHCONFRATERNITY PLANS COMMUNION

Archconfraternity of the Holy Family, Single Women, of St. Joseph's Church will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 7:30 Mass on Sunday, Dec. 3. Breakfast will be served immediately after in the basement of the school hall. The committee appointed by the President Marie Mayer are: Louise Deigert, Matilda Ritz, Katherine Irwin and Teresa Trott. The Rev. Joseph Wisniewski, C.S.S. R., spiritual director, will preside. On Dec. 4, Wednesday night, the Society will hold their annual Christmas party. All members, including Passive members are cordially urged to attend. A Committee consisting of the following members are making arrangements. The Misses Louise Deigert, Evelyn Cassidy, Julia Leeb, Louise Brown, Elizabeth Fisher and Ida Angale will be the hostesses. A 25 cent gift to be presented as an exchange gift and a lunch will be the high lights of the party. Each member is requested to bring a gift.

Assisting missionaries to form a native clergy is one of the great works proposed to all Catholics by the Vision of Christ. This help is given by those who have future Agents, that is, missionaries not preparing for the priesthood.

Worthy of Name

The soul of a person worthy of the name and purifying the spirit of the solution is justice, which impartially measure out to everyone what is due and takes from all their just due — justice which does not give everything to everyone but gives love to all and wrong to no one; justice, which is worthy of truth and the measure of healthy freedom and assured greatness.—Fr. Peter III.

Every single thing will help to win this war. If you don't buy a Good Warship, then look toward acquiring a Good by buying things wherever you can.
