

2 Catholic Youths Die, 4 Wounded in War

Action in Germany claimed the lives of two Catholic boys from this area; four are reported wounded on various battlefronts; two are missing and one is reported back on duty after having been reported missing; the War Casualty reports reveal this week.

Mr. Gordon C. Reitz, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Reitz, 130 Ridgeview Dr., Forest Hills, was killed in action in Germany Nov. 24, the War Department has informed the parents. A former honor student at East Rochester High School, Private Reitz attended Niagara University for two years before he began service in June, 1942. He took a course in engineering before his transfer to the infantry. Overseas only a few months, he was a member of the First Army.

Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Ronald H., and sister, Clair Reitz.

Pvt. Anthony Bellavia, 18, of St. Jerome's parish, East Rochester, was killed in action Dec. 18 in Germany, according to word received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bellavia, 100 W. Maple Ave., East Rochester.

Immediately after graduation from high school, Private Bellavia entered the Army and had been overseas four months. Survivors include three sisters, Angelina, Mary and Josephine Bellavia of East Rochester, and five brothers, James and John Bellavia of East Rochester and Thomas, Samuel and Charles Bellavia of Rochester.

Mr. Edward G. Miller, 19, parish-joner of St. Boniface Church, was seriously wounded in infantry action Nov. 26 in France, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller, 519 Caroline St., have learned.

Private Miller had completed his work as apprentice at Corbett Steeves Pattern Works when he began service in April, 1943. He has been overseas since July.

Sgt. Louis Chinelli, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Chinelli, and husband of Mrs. Lena Chinelli, all of East Rochester, was wounded Sept. 30 in action in Holland and has been brought to Wheaton General Hospital in Utica.

A former employe at the Lawrence Brothers Paper Millers, Sergeant Chinelli served in the 81st Infantry after he entered service. He has been overseas more than a year.

Pvt. Charles G. Bordenaro, 19, 174 Lexington Ave., was seriously wounded in France Nov. 18, the War Department has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Bordenaro of Holy Rosary parish. Private Bordenaro was a member of the New York State Guard before his enlistment in the Army Dec. 3, 1943. Going overseas towards the end of July he arrived in France about two months ago.

Mr. Thomas M. Hearty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Hearty, of Middlesex, was seriously wound-

What is meant by the sin of bad thoughts? It means that we think about things about which we should not think. They may cover many fields and our conscience will tell us whether or not the thoughts are wrong. Bad thoughts are not sins. Only when we take pleasure in them or consent to bad desires which result are we guilty of sin.
