

THEIRS WERE HAPPY LANDINGS

Twenty-six infants, none over five months, accompanied by two men, were recently transported by plane from Quebec City to Chicoutimi, where the foundlings were to enter another home. Sister Marie de la Reparation holds one of the babies, while Stewardess Joan Harland looks on. Canadian Pacific photo. (NCWC).

SODALTALK

A very happy New Year, Sodality, from the Director, Officers, and Central Council of the Rochester Deanery Sodality Union. May it be a year of even bigger and greater events for the Rochester Sodalities and a year of fruitful accomplishments and success for the Sodalists.

Say, Sodality, how would you like to start the New Year off right and win $10? Here's your chance in the form of a book review contest sponsored by the Catholic Truth Committee of the Sodality Union.

- These are the rules:
1. Any Sodality may enter.
2. The book reviewed must be written by a Catholic.
3. The review must not be less than 300 nor more than 600 words long.
4. Semi-finals shall be held in

HOW TO BAPTIZE IN EMERGENCY

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The Rev. Joseph B. McAllister, S.E., Ph.D., assistant professor of philosophy at the Catholic University of America, here, is the author of Emergency Baptism, a book of information on baptism for nurses, doctors and clerics.

Based on actual nursing experiences, the book is intended to aid members of hospital staffs to make accurate and quick decisions on their own responsibility. Father McAllister is a member of the staff of New Scholasticism.

each Sodality with winning entries sent in to Barbara Davis, head of the Catholic Truth Committee, not later than March 1.

Final winner will be announced at the March Union meeting.

Ruth Barry, Apostolic Committee Chairman, is anxious to hear from any Sodality willing to make beds for the Saturday Night Sleeping Headquarters at Columbus Civic Center, Phone Monroe 277 now.

Mary Lombardo reports that Sodality Union Headquarters has a number of game books containing suggestions for the social end of the Sodality meeting. Priced at 10 cents, these books can be ordered by phoning Culver 512-W.

New Year's Resolution for Sodality Committee Heads: I faithfully resolve to attend every future Union meeting so that I may grasp every idea and suggestion I can to make my committee an active part of the Sodality as it should be.

Sodalists, remember this Sunday, Jan. 7, is the Feast of the Holy Family and Family Communion Sunday. Remind your families of this and make your family units complete by your presence at the altar rail with them.

Parish Shorts: The Bonclub of St. Boniface Sodality anchored in the New Year with great festivity at its New Year's Eve party. Following the affair, members prepared for 1945 with a Solemn Holy Hour held in the church.

Asks International Catholic Cooperation

LONDON (CIP) — Archbishop Griffin of Westminster, Primate of England, speaking at the consecration of Bishop Bright, the new Auxiliary Bishop of Birmingham, urged the fostering of closer contacts between the Bishops of the different countries after the war. "We have mutual problems and mutual difficulties," he said, "and I think we shall be able to solve them best by inter-visiting, by comparing our plans, and by helping each other in times of difficulty in this great work of reconstruction."

Final Rites Held For 'Jafsie' Condon

NEW YORK (INS) — A Solemn High Mass of Requiem was held here today (Thursday) for Dr. John F. Condon, 44-year-old educator who won International fame 10 years ago as "Jafsie," an intermediary in the sensational kidnaping of the Lindbergh baby. Pneumonia, from which he had been suffering for several weeks, brought an end to the life of the Bronx educator. (Tuesday, Jan. 2) on the 10th anniversary of the start of the trial of Bruno Richard Hauptmann who subsequently was executed for the kidnaping. Private burial will be carried out at Valhalla, N. Y.

Baptism Rite Brings Parish's Convert Total to 3,400

NEW YORK (NC) — An unusually impressive ceremony took place in St. Charles Borromeo Church here, when sixteen priests baptized eighty-five colored adults, ranging in age from sixteen to sixty-four years, in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends, principally non-Catholics. More than 5,000 persons, 2,653 of them adult converts, have been baptized in the church since Monsignor William H. McCann became pastor in 1933. Monsignor McCann welcomed the new members of his parish and urged them to practice their religion in such a manner as to inspire others to join them in receiving "the great heritage" of Catholicism.

Directs Marriage Check-up To Protect Innocent

MEXICO CITY (NC) — The Most Rev. Luis M. Martinez, Archbishop of Mexico, has issued special instructions regarding marriage ceremonies intended to protect innocent parties from unscrupulous persons who, in the eyes of the Church, are bigamists. Priests are instructed to secure, in the case of persons who claim to be widows or widowers, certified proof as to the death of the former mate. They are also ordered to obtain all essential information about the contracting parties before performing a marriage ceremony, and to cooperate fully with the clergy of other dioceses who are seeking such information.
