LONDON (By Wireless RME) — Alleged persecution of Protestants in Spain, charged by leaders of the World's Evangelical Alliance in a recent letter to members of Parliament, has been denied by the Spanish newspaper, Ya, according to the Catholic Herald here.

The Madrid journal, the Herald said, asserted that "not a single Protestant has been executed, and that only two were under detention by the Franco regime."

Ya criticized the Evangelical Church for publishing in its official organ, "España Evangélica," attacks against Spain "when she made the victim of a campaign of calumny and insults directed against all her institutions."

Declaring that many Protestant chapels were open for worship in Madrid and the Provinces, the newspaper claimed that Spain is tolerant of all religions.

"What is prohibited," it said, "are centers of conspiracy and rebellion."

THE BISHOP RETURNS TO METZ

Smiling happily as he is welcomed by civilians in this city, Monseigneur Hesburgh, Bishop of Metz, returns to take up his duties, which had been interrupted by the Nazis. On a tour of inspection, he found the Cathedral undamaged. He had been staying in the nearby town of Mayange. Photo by Acme Photographer Charles Knobell. See the War Picture Post. (N.C.W.P.)

New Latin Translation Of Psalms Nears Completion

ROME (By Wireless RME) — A new Latin translation of the Psalms, which has been under way by the Church for centuries, is now nearing completion and will be published soon. It was announced here.

The translation will involve extensive revisions in the Breviary, which is now based on St. Jerome's 4th century translation, parts of which have been criticized as unsatisfactory and incomprehensible.

The revised text will be made directly from the ancient Hebrew and retains that language's rich rhythm. Pontifical confirmation will be necessary before the new translation is officially adopted, but this is believed virtually certain since, in one reference to the Christians' Alleviation, Pope Pius XII cited the new translation.
