

From the Fighting Fronts

(Continued from Page 5)

France and Belgium before going into Germany. He has a younger son, Joseph.

Two brothers are in service. George Joseph is in England and Frank J. Barone, with a Navy research unit in Washington.

One of twin brothers, Pvt. James M. Cassidy, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Cassidy, 1582 Brooks Ave., was wounded seriously in Luxembourg, Jan. 12.

A member of St. Helene's Church, Private Cassidy entered service Feb. 2, 1942, going overseas last November. He has three brothers in the Army: Robert M. Cassidy, his twin, with the Military Police at Camp Forrest, Tenn.; Pvt. William D. in Italy; and Pvt. Burton T. Cassidy in Germany.

Moving Corp. Edward F. Cunningham, 22, parishioner of St. Augustine's Church was slightly wounded in action last October. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cunningham, 21 McGaugh St., have earned Corporal Cunningham, who has been home on 30-day leave, entered service in February, 1942 and had been overseas since June 1942.

Word has been received here that Otto Eichas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Eichas of Coldwater Rd. and a member of the Church of the Holy Ghost, has been wounded in action in Germany.

Pvt. Michael J. Fournier, 20, Andrew's parishioner, was wounded in action in the European theater. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fournier, 66 Rosemary Dr., have been notified. Private Fournier was studying at Pardis University when he was inducted. He has been overseas about four months with an infantry unit.

Wounded in action for the fourth time was Master Tech. Sgt. Edward W. Gerner, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gerner, 18 Albany Ave., according to the War Department. Sergeant Gerner, a graduate of Aquinas Institute, enlisted in the Marine Corps shortly after leaving school in '41. He was wounded at Pearl Harbor, Guadalcanal, and in the Marshall Islands. Two sisters are actress, Mrs. Regine and Corp. Mary Gerner. The family attends Andrew's Church.

Pvt. James J. Larkin, 20, father two daughters, was slightly wounded in France Jan. 8, according to word reaching his wife, Mrs. Margaret Larkin, 440 Broadway, is the son of Mrs. Mary Larkin, Auburn. In service since Dec. 1942, Private Larkin has been overseas since last July. His daughters are Carol, 8, and Barbara, 6.

Mr. Charles R. McFadden, parson, was wounded in action in Italy for the third time. His father, Edmund McFadden left, son, A. Francis, 1000 of Blessed Sacrament School, entered the Army in April, 1942. A brother, George, is a member of a hospital in England from a grave duty in Germany. His mother, Mrs. Edwin H. Gerner, 28 N. Goodman St., has learned.

The infantryman has been recruiting in a hospital in England from a grave duty in Germany. His mother, Mrs. Edwin H. Gerner, 28 N. Goodman St., has learned.

Private McFadden went overseas in April, 1943 and saw action in North Africa and Sicily, before going into the invasion of Normandy. A former pupil of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School, he has three brothers in service: Private Bernard McFadden in the South Pacific; Corp. James, in France and Mr. Robert McFadden, aboard a warship.

Church and former pupil of the parish school. A navigator in a B-17, he entered the Army in January, 1943 and has been overseas since last September. Also a private of the Germans is a cousin Lt. Joseph Wyman.

Corp. Frederick G. Meyer, 21, Holy Rosary parishioner, is a prisoner of the Germans after being listed missing in Italy since Oct. 10, his wife, Ann Meyer, 18, has just learned. His is the son of Mrs. Theresa Meyer, 16, Weston St. A former pupil of St. Peter and Paul's School, he went into the Army in November, 1942 and has been overseas with an infantry unit since last March. A brother, A/Sgt. George E. Meyer, 18, is in a Navy V-12 unit.

Corp. Edward Knight, 22, who has been missing over Holland since Sept. 18, is a prisoner of the Germans, his mother, Mrs. Catharine Knight, 16, Angie St., has learned. A graduate of Holy Cross School, the corporal entered service in November, 1940, went overseas a year ago and served for a time at Pearl Harbor before being returned to this country. He later joined a glider group in England. He has a brother, Corp. Thomas Knight, now stationed in Okinawa, who served with Merrill's Marauders in the India-Burma theater.

Pvt. John H. Boehmer, 19, Holy Rosary parishioner, was wounded in action Nov. 21 in Germany, the War Department has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boehmer, 307 Hudson Ave. Private Boehmer entered service a year ago in February and went overseas in October, 1942.

Wounded in action on Leyte Dec. 1, Pvt. Nicholas J. Tambalo, 22, husband of Mrs. Concetta Tambalo, 8 Warehouse St., has been returned to active duty. A member of St. Patrick's Church, Private Tambalo entered service in January, 1942 and has been overseas 11 months. The soldier has a daughter, Mary Jean Tambalo, 20 months.

Pvt. Alceon J. Marks, 20, was seriously wounded in action Dec. 30 in Luxembourg, his mother, Mrs. Helen Marks, 304 North St., has learned. The infantryman entered service in November, 1942 and has been overseas since last May. He attended St. Stanislaus School.

Under treatment for trench foot, Pvt. Regis Collechio, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Collechio, 8 Ward St., is in a hospital in England. The parents are informed. The infantryman's condition developed while he was serving in France. A member of St. Bridget's Church, Private Collechio entered service last March, going overseas in August. His family has received German souvenirs collected while the soldier was serving with Patton's Third Army.

Injured in France in August, Sgt. Benjamin Jachet, 20, has been promoted in England. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jachet, 24 Monroe St., have learned. Sergeant Jachet was a member of St. Thomas' parish when he entered service four years ago. He went overseas with a field artillery group in March, 1942.

Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 26 on

information that his only son, second Lt. Donald H. Schmitt, 21, who has been missing in action over Germany since Nov. 2, is a prisoner of the Germans. He was captured Jan. 18, 1945. Sgt. Agnes H. Gerner, 27, has received the Purple Heart for an injury suffered Nov. 2