

Knights at Communion Mass To Pray for Men in Service

Prayers for two soldier-members who have made the supreme sacrifice and for the welfare of two former Chaplains and 150 members now in the armed forces will be offered by Rochester Council Knights of Columbus at the Corporate Communion, Sunday at St. Patrick's Church.

The two members who have given their lives in action are Sgt. Joseph G. Streb and Sgt. Donald A. Lappan. The two former chaplains now serving in the armed forces are: Chaplain John V. Laughlin, U. S. Navy and Chaplain Raymond G. Heinel, U. S. Army.

The Communion Mass to be offered by His Excellency, Bishop

Bishop Kearney and State Deputy Stephen J. Cushing of Brooklyn, speakers at the Communion Breakfast following in Powers Hotel will be presented by Justice William F. Love of the Appellate Division who will preside. Grand Knight Francis T. Tomaney announces.

The Communion Mass and

Breakfast are a highlight of the annual membership drive which is being conducted under the direction of Deputy Grand Knight John A. German and managed by George W. Vacca of the Supreme Office. Sons of members and prospective members are being urged to attend.

Completing arrangements for the Communion and Breakfast is a committee headed by General Chairman Frank J. Thomas.

Kearney will be featured by special church music in charge of Ray J. Hasenauer of Aquinas Institute faculty.

—

Bishop

Kearney

and

State

Deputy

Cushing

will be

the speakers

at

the breakfast

which is to follow

the

communion

mass

which

is

to be offered

by

His

Excellency

Bishop

Kearney

and

State

Deputy

Cushing

on

Tuesday

evening

at

Powers

Hotel

in

Rochester

on

Tuesday

<p