The first Sunday of each month has been designated as children's Communion Sunday in Our Lady of Lourdes parish. All school children are expected to attend the 9 o'clock Mass and receive Holy Communion in a body.

The Rev. Leo G. Schwab, pastor, requests that the children take their places in the front pews that will be reserved for them.

High school students of the parish are also expected to attend this Mass and receive Holy Communion as they have been doing in the past.

John H. Doherty is Paid Final Tribute

CORNING — John H. Doherty, 66, one of Corning, most prominent and valuable citizens, died Friday, Feb. 21, at his home, 171 E. First St. Mr. Doherty underwent an operation on his heart and his condition became critical soon after that.

Mr. Doherty was born in Throop, Pa., son of James and Bridget O'Malley Doherty. He came to Corning in 1918 as a member of the staff of the Corning Light and Power Co., later becoming vice president. In August, 1924, when the local utility company was taken over by the New York Central Electric Corp., he was made a director of the concern. He served until 15 months ago as district manager of that company. After his resignation he was appointed secretary to Assemblyman Edwin C. Cheney and served in that capacity until Mrs. Cheney's death of her term.

At the time of his death Mr. Doherty was vice chairman of the Corning War Council, director of the Corning Trust Co., and director of the Corning Country Club.

Mr. Doherty was a charter member of the Corning Rotary Club as well as Corning Country Club and served as president of both organizations. He was affiliated with the Corning Council Knights of Columbus and Corning Lodge of Elks.

He served as a member of the Board of Education of School District 9 and at the time of his death was chairman of the board's reports committee.

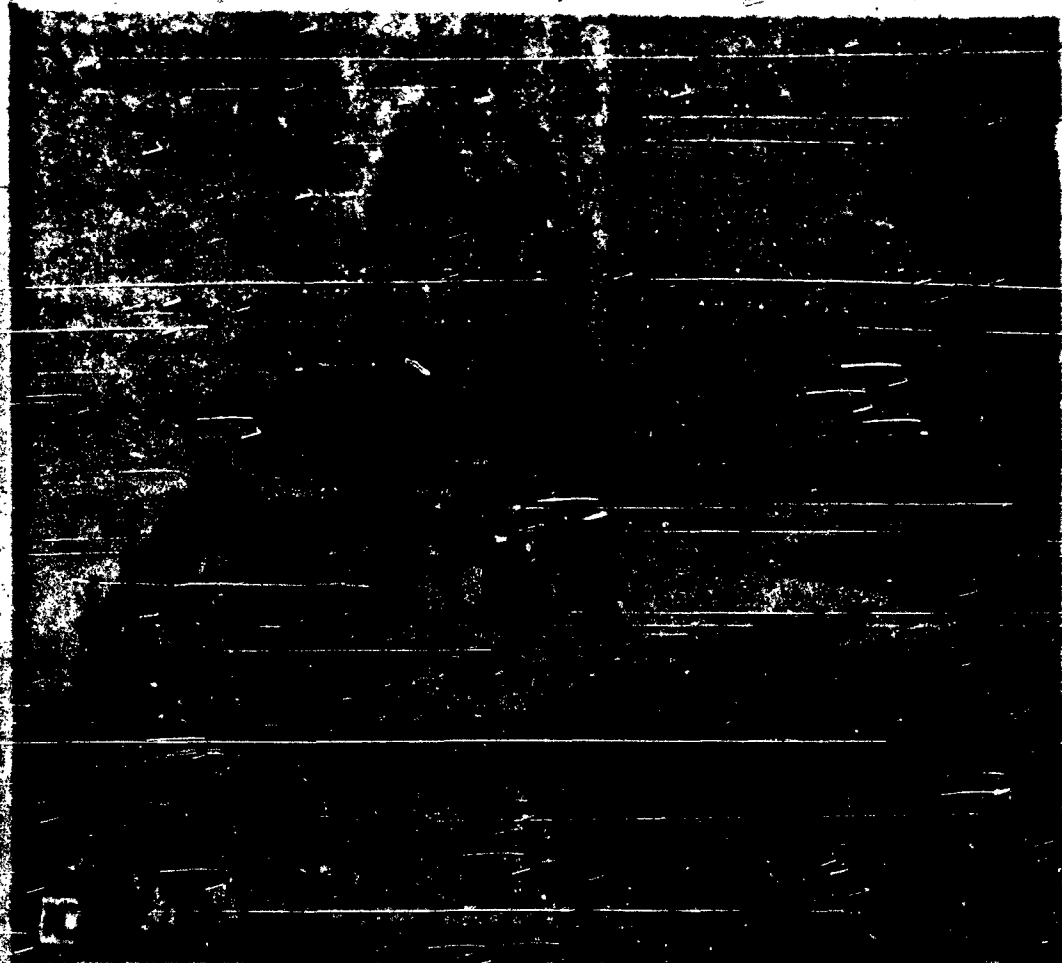

Besides his wife, the former Miss Mary Partoll of Corning, he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. D. F. Robinson, of Seneca, Pa., and Mrs. William (Nobby) of Olyphant, Pa., and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held from the late home Monday at 2:30 p. m. and at 9 o'clock at St. Patrick's Church. Burial was in St. Mary's Cemetery.

RURAL LIVING

I hope the Catholic Church will continue to oppose the tide towards family disintegration in the cities, will emphasize the value of the rural environment, and encourage every city family that can leave its modern-like surroundings to move into the country, where the probability of family preservation is twice that in the city. But the father should not give up the city job—in most cases this would prove economically ruinous. Nor should the home site selected be so far in time or money from the city as to prove discouraging to the new undertaking.—Dr. Oliver H. Baker, University of Maryland.

Peace in the Family

Restoring peace to the family is not done by warring. Distribute about broken homes and divorces. For these are not the cause but the result of domestic conflict. The whole plan of treatment in marriage clinics must be predicated upon the value of family life. Our own life and experience has predisposed us to certain attitudes towards marriage and family life. We need not attempt to modify them but it is important that we give them due recognition. Let us also look for the differences between people in their family backgrounds, religion, social interests, temperament, economic and cultural patterns. All must be given due weight. The Rev. James C. Carey, Chicago.
