

Modern Woman's "Tension" Scared By Hsg. Sheen

NEW YORK — The "modern" woman, who demands to man's "love" instead of raising him to her, was called Sunday by the Rev. Msgr. Philip J. Sheen of the faculty of Catholic University in his Lenten course of sermons to St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Mgr. Sheen held up as a model the wife of Pontius Pilate, Claudia, who turned her husband to spare the life of Christ, according her to the wife of Herod, Heroda, who caused John the Baptist to be beheaded.

"The level of any salvation is always the level of its womanhood," said Msgr. Sheen. "The nearer the love, the higher a man must climb to attain it. In times of temptation and in times of crisis it is the mission of the wife to be man's guide, counselor and fulfilling lamp of righteousness."

The church bids you model on Claudia, who brooked the judgment of Pontius Pilate to save him from wronging "a just man," as she called Christ. The woman who brings a man to Christ the church considers not as a modern woman, most any superior, now our equal, but as the kind of woman who was at the heart of the cross."

Strangers in Town?

WE WELCOME to Rochester find this "Bank of Good Service" a good bank to be associated with from its beginning, nearly half-a-century ago. The famous Valley Trust Company has been here to settle here, and we are glad to have it. We are most grateful to the many ways in which we can be of service to you.
