Report Soviets Hold 5000 Poles in Rumania

London (AP) — Approximately 5,000 Poles are reported to be held in Rumania, are now under the domination of the Soviet regime, according to information received here by R.A.P., Polish Outlook, from Agence.

The majority of the Poles were taken from their homes in Rumania during the Soviet invasion of that country.

The Polish Red Cross has appealed to a special committee to have the Poles separated from German prisoners of war, and provided with food, but it has received nothing as yet, the report says.

Uniform Overwhelms

The Archbishop of Paris is concerned with the sudden increase in marriages amongst U. S. soldiers and French girls... which reminds us of a crack made by Abe Martin that "beauty may not be more than skin deep, but it's mighty handy for a girl that ain't got no brains."... If the uniforms of a soldier overwhelms a girl, she ought to take a good look at his presentation... Then, though she's a French shadow, too... THE SHOCK UP.
