

Ten Terrible Days' Maryknoll Nun Reports of Philippine Bombardment

MARYKNOLL, N. Y.—(NC)—The first letter received here from one of the American Maryknoll Sister-missionaries imprisoned in Fort Santiago, Manila, gives a ghastly picture of conditions endured in the military prison and of the dramatic rescue of the interned by Msgr. Sheen Says.

Masses' Led by Ruthless Leaders Imperil World

NEW YORK—(NC)—All that is good in the world once again is being threatened by the "masses" manipulated by conscientious officials of the "absolute State," the St. Rev. Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen, of the Catholic University of America, declared in a Lenten sermon at St. Patrick's Cathedral.

"They had to be led to have some through Hitler," she writes. "Just now the camp radio announced that the internees at Los Banos had been decapitated. Our Sisters have been there since July. Sister Ursula and Sister Cleo, native Filipina Maryknoll missionaries, are in Santa Ana, Manila, with the Spanish-born Sisters. They fled there from the Philippines General Hospital, where they had taken refuge when St. Mary's Hall burned.

"Sister Ursula and I have been separated from the Sisters since April, when we were taken as prisoners to Port Batangas. The Camp of Death.

"I know—now—what the Japanese sent me to the Philippines General Hospital to recuperate, which I am to go back to prison. I didn't recover too rapidly, so they gave radio for me, then said: 'And I was at the hospital during the bombardment, by day, good Americans gun, which were aimed at our own station, because our country had made of the Philippines. There were ten thousand dead and five thousand wounded.'

"The Japanese, plus several other Americans who had been captured with the warring neighbors of Manila, Malate and Escolta were brought together in the same room of the hotel we had the three days before many causalities.

The Americans demanded that all of the Japanese that had captured them be released. They said: 'We will release you if you can get us some food and water.'

"The Japanese, who were afraid of getting caught, letting each American get his demands, their hands and money when in their power. I am now with the American government at North Texas University. Coming, having real bread, real bacon, and milk! and regular meals. God bless Uncle Sam.

For the most courageous of New York newspaper men have to tell of Manila events will be paid in compensating with the real, pure, raw, shoulder, tandem, company, and real, prayson have brought no thanks.
