Basketball

St. Casimir's School

The championship of the St. Casimir School Basketball team went to the Air Corps team in the second consecutive year since the victory defeated the Navy, 22-17, in a hard-fought game last Saturday. The victory enabled the Air Corps to claim the second round title and since they had already won the first round championship, the necessity of a play-off series was eliminated. In the other game played, Jim Macrae pushed the Army deeper into the league cellar by winning 27-17.

The Air Corps waged an uphill battle before registering its victory, a strong and determined Navy five. Navy held a 10-9 lead throughout the game and held a 20-19 advantage with two minutes left to play. Two foul goals and a foul by Harry McDonald turned the tide in favor of the Air Corps, although Joseph's goal in the last minute restored the Navy's hope for victory.

The final games brought to a successful conclusion the third season of inter-class basketball with an enrollment of thirty boys from the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades. Captain of the teams were: Raymond Strzynski, Air Corps; Peter Pernick, Navy; Joseph Awadza, Marine; John Kuncic, Army.

Saturday's games:

Team	W	L
Air Corps	10	2
Navy	9	3
Marine	8	4
Army	7	5

Final Standings:

St. Mary's on Top

CORNING — St. Mary's five won the championship in the Southside Junior High basketball league on March 17 at the Academy by swamping the St. Patrick's squad 38-11. The CPA Bulldogs finished up in the league in second place because of their double wins over both the CPA Bulldogs and St. Patrick's and their losses to the undefeated St. Mary's team, while the Bulldogs were only able to establish wins over St. Patrick's for the former's third place and while St. Patrick's took last place with six consecutive losses.

St. Patrick's 18 points against St. Patrick's clinched the league's high scoring title for him, giving him a total of 22 points. Ferratello, high scorer for Monday night, jumped from fourth to second place on the scoring list by scoring 20 points. The only other major change in the scoring list was Ferretto's overtaking Jerry by scoring 11 points against the Bulldogs and giving him a total of 27.
