Scholarship Awarded St. Agnes High Student

Patricia A. Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Lynch, 108 Buchanan Street of Blessed Sacrament Parish has been awarded a scholarship to Good Counsel College on the recommendation of the Scholarship Committee. The announcement was received this week from the office of the Dean.

For the 5th consecutive year a group of the students of Saint Agnes High School sang the High Mass which was offered by Reverend John A. Randall on Easter Sunday morning at the Carmelite Monastery. The members of the choir, accompanied by Rosemary Laid, included Doris Windmuller, Frances Ince, Patricia Lynch, Suzanne Manning, Joy Monaco, Bernadette Mully, Ann Marie O'Brien and Susanne Tierney.

The student's annual retreat was conducted by the Rev. Gilbert Wheeler of the Passionist Fathers, New York City. On the closing morning, Mass was offered by His Excellency, Bishop Keane who afterwards gave an inspiring talk on the subject of vocations.

Museum To Observe Jefferson's Birthday

The Rochester Museum of Art and Sciences will pay tribute to the birthday of Thomas Jefferson, April 13 with a special program of motion pictures on patriotic themes Sunday, April 8 at 1 p. m. according to Dr. Arthur C. Parker, museum director.

Main feature of the program will be "Thomas Jefferson and Monticello," a sound and color film depicting highlights in Jefferson's life. The weekly showing of the free children's show scheduled for 10:29 a. m. Saturday, April 7 will include two cartoons, "Owl and the Frog" and "Polly Plover's Song," and three educational films, "Bugs," "Dinosaur Unit 1," and "Woolly Beauty."

Miniature Exhibit Set at Art Gallery

Home of great Americans and simple folk who built the cottages of Cape Cod and the farms of Pennsylvania, will be shown in perfect miniature, even to grand-father clocks that tick away the time, in an exhibit opening at the Rochester Art Gallery Friday (Apr. 6).

The famous collection, known as the Thomas House, is a sequel to the Newport collection shown here about four years ago, in more than 1000 miniature scenes.
