

Dignified Observance Of V-E Day Planned

Auburn—Mayor Edward Chester J. Billi, the Rev. Dr. W. E. Cowen, William O. Dapping, Rev. George E. Davies and Rabbi Abraham I. Feldblin issued a proclamation this week for a sane and dignified observance of V-E Day when that day arrives.

The committee mindful of the fact that war does not end when Germany is defeated stated that patriotic Americans will want to spend as much time as possible in prayer and meditation and offer a word of thanksgiving to Almighty God for bringing us and especially, at least part way along the path of final victory.

The committee in their proclamation made this statement:

"Upon receipt of official information that hostilities in the European Theater of Operations has terminated, Church bells will toll, sirens and factory whistles will not be sounded till two hours thereafter. The two hour period is given over to thanksgiving and devotional services in the different churches in the city."
