

Verse of Nazareth Poets Selected for Anthology

The National High School Poetry Association of Los Angeles, California, has announced the acceptance of seventeen winners from Nazareth Academy to appear in their annual spring number of the National Anthology. Students from Sacred Heart Parish who won recognition are Eileen O'Halloran for Design; Dorothea Gramenti for The Last Sparrow; Theresa Dieter, Good News; Lois Hasenauer, Spring; and Eleanor Spencer, Madison's Supper.

From other parishes, Patricia Tricker (St. Charles) for Summer; Chris Feluso (Holy Family); Cloud Fantasy; Marjorie Schwaigen, (St. Boniface) If I Were Blind; Madeline Harmsell, (St. Margaret Mary) Gypsy Night; Helen Holley (St. Vincent de Paul, Churchville) Last Swallow; Phyllis Trapani, (Holy Rosary), Spring in Back; Lois Arledge, (Good Counsel), Breastside; Joanne Carey, (St. Rose, Liria); Spring; Rita Pilata, (St. Philip Neri), Aurora; and Betty Larkin (St. Patrick's) God's Turtle. Honorable mention is given to Elizabeth Lewis (St. Theodore) for Wisdom, and to Jeannine Burke (St. Salome) for Muscle. Twelve Nazareth poets were accepted for this anthology in the contest scheduled last December as a total of twenty-nine poems from the academy will be included in the anthology.

'Chinese Week at Museum'
In observance of "Chinese Week" which ends April 21, the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences is currently exhibiting authentic items of old and new China.

They'll Ring 'The Bells of St. Mary's'

Picture shows an Ingrid Bergman as Sister Benedict and Bing Crosby as Father O'Malley in the first photo released of the forthcoming production, "The Bells of St. Mary's" in which the two Academy Award winners are co-starring. Area theaters will feature this film in view of the outstanding success of "Going My Way."
