Italy's Communists Follow Moscow Tactic

ROMA (RNS) The question of church-state relations in Italy, dormant since the installation of Rome, has been reopened by Deputy Premier Palmiro Togliatti, in a speech before the Communist Party convention here in which he accused the Catholic Church of "interfering" in national politics.

Vatican and Catholic press sit-ers withheld comment on the Communist leader's speech, but several Catholic quarters described it as following the pattern of recent Moscow attacks against the Vatican.

INZ President Dies

NEW YORK CITY (RNS) Joseph V. Connolly, 70, president Catholic layman and president of King Features Syndicate International News Service and International News Photo, died last week after a heart attack.
