

Nazareth College Opens Mystery Musical Friday

On Friday and Saturday nights, May 11 and 12, the curtain will go up on the Nazareth College SRC production, at 8:15 p. m., in the College Auditorium.

SRG was originated several years ago for the purpose of providing funds which will be used to erect a new Co-op house on the College campus. Every year, SRC presents an original musical show which has original songs and an all-star student cast and chorus, although outsiders are invited to play minor roles.

The entire student body of Nazareth contributes its collective talents.

This year's production will be a sparkling mystery musical "Cinderella's Slipper", which was written by Frances J. Gull and which will be directed by Duff Ann Fisherty.

Suspense and comedy mingle in a plot which is both clever and original. The vivid dance routines and snappy chorus add flavor and color to the witty dialog, and the musical background is spiced with hit tunes by Pat Taylor, Doris Bierdorf, Doris Anne Fisherty, Carol Baker, Jack Perry, and Virginia Dwyer. The female lead, Cindy, will be played by Betty White, and Lila Hight will play the "super-macelarine Jan." The male lead will be George L'Intill.

They will be supported by a well-selected cast which includes: Jane Thurston, Jeanne Whitley, Marla Hal, Alfred Okolowicz, Carrie Knapp, Nancy Brown, Marilyn Moore, Jack Perry, Helene Myers, Irla Beltner, Paul Folino, Doris Bierdorf, Rosemary Welch, and Joan Duran.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours are scheduled in the following churches of the Rochester Diocese:

Sunday, May 14 — St. Philip Neri, Rochester.

Mgr. Sheen Lecture Slated for Auburn

Auburn — Msgr. Fulton J. Sheen of the Catholic University of America, famed lecturer, author and teacher, will deliver an address here on Friday evening, May 18, at 8:30 o'clock in East High School Auditorium on Franklin Street.

Msgr. Sheen's lecture will be entitled, "The World Today" and will be a full discussion of world conditions, especially international relations and peace plans.

A trio composed of Adolph Hess, Louis McArthur and Leonard Walker, will provide instrumental music for one hour previous to the commencement of the lecture. Tickets for the lecture may be obtained at St. Mary's rectory. The cost is sixty cents.

World Sodality Services Set Sunday at Aquinas

A plenary indulgence under the usual conditions may be gained by members of the Rochester Deanery Sodality Union attending the World Sodality Day ceremonies Sunday, May 13, by permission of His Excellency, Bishop Kearney. It is announced.

Celebration of the Day will be observed with a special program under direction of the Rev. Charles E. Bauer, director of the Rochester deanery, which will take place on the campus of Aquinas Institute at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

A Living Rosary composed of representatives of all member Sodalities of the Union will be formed at the opening of the exercises, followed by crowning of the May Queen, Miss Dorothy Rosenfeld. The program will conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

In the event of rain or poor weather conditions, the ceremonies will be held in the Aquinas auditorium.

According to the Rev. Roy B. Morphy, diocesan director of the Sodality Union, World Sodality Day has for its general object, "the uniting of our immense family through brotherly aid, knowledge-based enthusiasm, and a renewal of wholehearted zeal, ad Jesum per Mariam — to Jesus through Mary."

Holy Cross Group Plans Card Party

The Rosary Society of Holy Cross Parish will hold a card party Friday, May 25, in the school auditorium at 8 P. M.

Rev. Alexander J. McCabe has been made honorary chairman.

Mrs. James V. Jones has appointed Mrs. John Reis chairman and Mrs. James McDonald co-chairman.

Catholic Workers Sponsor Novena

Prayers for permanent peace and a renewal of Christian faith throughout the world will be offered at a nine-day Novena to the Holy Ghost opening at 8 p. m. Friday, May 11, in St. Patrick's Church, North Plymouth Avenue.

The Rev. Benedict Ehmman of St. Bernard's Seminary and the Rev. Bartholomew O'Brien, assistant at St. Patrick's, will conduct the services, which are sponsored annually by the Catholic Worker Group. Anyone is welcome to attend.

The Novena, consisting of liturgical prayers and hymns, sermon and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament, will close Saturday, May 19, the eve of Pentecost Sunday. Known as the Pentecost Novena, it is the only official Novena in the church liturgy. Members of the Catholic Worker Group will sing the Pentecost sequence each night.
