Franklin Hero Lauds Jewish Doctor, Protestant Chaplain

Boston — (NC) — Five hundred persons attended a public testimonial to Lieut. Comdr. Joseph T. O'Callahan, S.J., hero-chaplain of the air-craft carrier Franklin, in the auditorium of Cambridge High and Latin School here.

"I can only accept this tribute," Father O'Callahan said, "with the understanding that it is a tribute not to me personally but to the men and fellow officers on the Franklin who sacrificed their lifes."

Father O'Callahan paid tributes to two of his comrades aboard the Franklin — a Protestant chaplain and a Jewish doctor. "I want to tell you," he said, "about my colleague, a Protstant chaplain from Texas, Lieut. Grimes W. Gatlin. He was down below when the bomb hit the Franklin. He has been awarded the Silver Star."

"And I want to tell you about Dr. Samuel Sherman, of San Francisco, a Jewish doctor and a very brave man," the priest continued. "He was the first doctor to get to the flight deck," Father O'Callahan said, adding that Doctor Sherman disregarded general orders to leave the stricken carrier so that he could attend the wounded.
