Owego Parish Honors Class Day Held At Catholic High

Owego — The Rev. Alexander J. Stec, who was recently appointed pastor of St. John's Church in Newark Valley and of St. Francis' Church in Catocton, and who for the past six and one-half years served as assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Parish was honored at a reception on Sunday afternoon in St. Patrick's Parish hall.
 A large number of the parishioners were present on the occasion which also was the twelfth anniversary of the ordination to the priesthood of Father Stec. David J. Reilhan acted as chairman and introduced a group of male singers who rendered several well-known songs.
 The Rev. Michael L. Hynes spoke of the success Father Stec had had during his residence in this village and stated that beyond a doubt Father Stec was the most popular young priest to be stationed in St. Patrick's Parish for a number of years. He was popular not only with the members of the parish but also with the people of the village among whom he was well-known and liked.
 At the conclusion of his remarks Father Hynes presented the honor guest with a purse of $5.00, as a testimonial of the people of Owego. Father Stec was most appreciative in his acceptance and he stated that the years that he had spent in Owego had been happy ones for him. He would always remember the people of the village as among his best friends and he asked of them their prayers that he might be successful in the fulfillment of his new duties in Newark Valley.
