

Graduation Exercises Held At Two Commercial Schools

Sixty young business students were graduated from Rochester's two Catholic commercial schools at exercises held this week.

The Rev. Dr. George F. Kotell, S. T. D., pastor of St. Mary's Church, presided over graduation of St. Mary's School of Business Sunday when 32 received diplomas.

The address was given by the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, associate editor of the CATHOLIC JOURNAL. The Rev. Francis E. Hostler presented the class.

The class sang the "Ave Maria" and "Sacred Heart of Jesus, Fount of Love and Mercy."

Miss Phyllis Bernardo and

Miss Pauline Raucher both tied for the highest scholarship average for four years. It was announced.

Solemn benediction of the Blessed Sacrament concluded the ceremonies with the Rev. George V. Predmore officiating assisted by Father Flynn and the Rev. Walter Carron.

On Tuesday, June 26, a class of 43 was graduated from St. Joseph's Commercial School at ceremonies presided over by the Rev. Stephen Aulbach, C.S.S.R., rector.

Following the transfer of the St. Joseph banner from the senior class to the junior class, Miss Connie Guarino delivered the valedictory.

Typing certificates representing successful completion of the two-year course were awarded 36 students. The Memorial prize for general excellence was won by Miss Bernice A. Staub.

Father Aulbach delivered the commencement address and conferred diplomas and awards.

Scholarship average for four years, gave the valedictory.

During the program the graduates, accompanied by the Aquinas Band, sang "The Ramparts We Watch," by Lt. Comm. W. G. Beecher, USN.

Nazareth Academy
The Catholic Church's most valuable contribution to community welfare is the sum which she invests in her educational program, Bishop Kearney told 230 Nazareth Academy graduates at their 73rd annual commencement held Sunday at the Eastman theater.

Opening the program was the graduates' procession, the "Grand Chorus," and the singing of "Lord Grant Us Peace," under direction of the Rev. Benedict Ehrmann.

Following the class salutatory, "Sign posts for Seventeen," which was given by Miss Jean Innocenzi, the Rev. J. Joseph O'Connell presented the graduates who were then awarded diplomas and honors.

Miss Jean Reinhardt delivered the valedictory, "That Christ May Live."

Scholarships to Nazareth College have been won by the following members of the class: the Misses Ellen Van Atta, Rosemarie O'Hara, Patricia Gantert and Jean Marie Wahl.

Other scholarships were awarded the Misses Margaret Raetz, New Rochelle; Mary Lou Werner, Rochester Business Institute, and Mary T. Ryan, Rochester Institute of Technology. Miss Kathryn Kanka, daughter of a World War I veteran, has also been awarded a college scholarship.
