Wedding Anniversary At St. Mary's Church

Corning — Mr. and Mrs. James F. O'Brian, of 88 W. First St., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Thursday, July 12, with a high mass at 8 a. m. at St. Mary's Church, followed by a family dinner at their home.

The former Miss Elizabeth Bigelow, daughter of Mrs. William Bigelow and the late Mr. Bigelow, and Mr. O'Brian, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. O'Brian, were united in marriage July 12, 1920 at St. Mary's Church by the late Rev. J. J. Gleason, pastor. The couple have two daughters the Misses Eileen and Betty O'Brian, both at home.

of the Diocese and to the people of Elmira whom he has so faithfully served."

The Rev. Earl H. Robertson, president of the Elmira and Vicinity Ministerial Association:

"Father Lee has made an outstanding contribution to the religious life of the whole community. His passing is a great loss."

The body of Monsignor Lee was removed from the Frank O'Dea funeral home to the rectory, 168 High Street, on Sunday afternoon. On Tuesday afternoon it was taken to SS. Peter and Paul's Church there to lie in state until the funeral services on Wednesday morning.

Before the Funeral Mass thousands came to say a final prayer and to pay their respects to the distinguished churchman.

Members of the Elmira Ladies of Charity Council, Knights of Columbus, and of church societies, acted as honor guards at the rectory and at the church.

Monsignor Lee had completed 51 years in the priesthood when death came to him.

When he observed the 50th anniversary of his ordination in May 1944, he was honored by his fellow priests and parishioners at a special High Mass of thanksgiving.

Friends of Monsignor Lee this week described his death as the end of an era in the Catholic history of Elmira.

When Monsignor Lee was ordained in 1894, the Elmira and Southern Tier area were still a part of the Diocese of Buffalo.

In 1896, the year that Monsignor Lee was appointed as a young curate to St. Patrick's Church in Elmira, the Southern Tier area which includes Elmira and Corning was transferred from Buffalo to the Diocese of Rochester. At this time Monsignor Lee and other Buffalo priests stationed in the transferred area became members of the Rochester Diocese.

Of the original group of Buffalo priests who joined the Rochester Diocese in 1896, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Griffin, V. F., pastor emeritus of St. Mary's Church, Corning, is the only one living.

her as children in his church and school.

He was given an accurate measure of his popularity in May, 1944, when he was honored by fellow priests and parishioners at a special High Mass, and when Elmira Council, Knights of Columbus, paid him homage.

To the end of his 81 years, Monsignor Lee carried the zeal and the faith that had been his when he was ordained in 1894. Throughout his life his one ambition was to serve his fellowmen, his church and his God. In that service he laid up rich treasure, not on earth but in Heaven; and there that treasure waits the coming of a gentle and humble soul.
