

Three Nazareth Girls Win In National Essay Contest

Nazareth Academy, Rochester, was honored this week when three of its students were named among 15 state and 50 national winners in the country-wide essay contest sponsored by the Catholic War Veterans.

The Nazareth winners are members of the Academy's 1945 Graduation Class. Their names are:

Miss Geraldine Fitzpatrick, 270 Collingwood Drive.

Miss Melvina T. Schmitt, 577 Joseph Avenue.

Miss Ellen Van Atta, 36 DuMont Street.

Each of these prizewinners received a $25 War Bond for their papers on "America's Youth and the Bill of Rights," which was the assigned topic of the essay competition.

Winners were selected from among 5,107 submitted entries.

First prize, a $1,000 War Bond, was awarded Kyle Boeger of Washington, D.C., according to an announcement by the Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston, who acted as Honorary Chairman of the Board of Judges.

Members of the Board of Judges were: Most Rev. Bernard J. Shell, Auxiliary Bishop of Chicago; Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, Director U. S. Mint; William L. Chaney, publisher COLIER'S; Rt. Rev. Monsignor Edward J. Flanagan, Boys Town, Neb.; Dr. John E. Wade, Superintendent of Schools, Board of Education, City of New York; Commander James J. (Gene) Tunney, USNR; Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Air Lines.

Skating Berrys Booked At Roseland Park

Appearing for the first time in the East the Skating Berrys, an outstanding family troupe, will play a full week, starting next Monday, at Roseland Park on Canandaigua Lake.

Charley, Jr., the youngest pivot skater on record, now in his second year, and his sister Marion, are sensational in their skating presentations. The youngsters have received their schooling from their mother, Betty, who teaches the famous Calvert system.

Included in their routine, a certain element of comedy is injected which adds interest to the performance.

Knights Picnic Aides Named

Committee heads for the outing of Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliary of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church set Sunday afternoon, July 29 at Schuetzen Park were named today.

All Knights of St. John and Ladies Auxiliary members are invited to the outing.

Co-chairmen Edward Roberts and Georgiana Nientamp will be assisted by Leonard Bossert, vice-chairman; Joseph Riesenberger and Bernadine Bossert, secretaries; Clarence Gutberlet, treasurer and Lauretta Kasman, assistant treasurer.

Sub-committee heads are: Reception, John G. Blitner and Mrs. Julia Bossert; Lunch, Joseph A. Zimmer and Mary Dittman; Refreshments, Robert Stevenson, John Maier and Marcela Schnorr; sports and prizes, Leo J. Roth and Jeanette Rehberg; Games, Frank Bagne; Finance, Ned Schnorr.

Literary Foundation Choies

Washington — The Rev. Dr. James A. Magner, Procurator of the Catholic University of America, has just received word that his book, "Personality and Successful Living," is the selection for August of the Catholic Literary Foundation.

Scottish Bishops Warn Against Voting For Reds

London — (RNS) — Catholics have been warned by the hierarchy of Scotland not to vote for Communists in the forthcoming general election. In a joint statement, the bishops declared Catholics are free to support any non-Communist candidate provided he and his party do not seek in any way "to destroy religion."
