UNSCATHED IN SWIRL OF WAR

An unidentified Catholic missionary priest (in white) and a lay Brother daily place flowers before this statue of the Blessed Virgin on Saipan. The statue is entirely unharmed, despite the fact that it was in the center of some of the bitterest fighting in the Pacific war. The United States Marines took Saipan from the Japanese more than a year ago. The edifice behind the statue is a Catholic chapel which was erected to replace the original mission church, which was destroyed in the fierce fighting. (Official U. S. Marine Corps Photo.)
