Camp Benefit Supper Set at Civic Centre

Annual Supper and Social for the benefit of Camp Stella Maris will be held this year in the Columbus Civic Centre Auditorium on Wednesday, Sept. 19. Chicken supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock, and the social will be held throughout the evening. Those who were guests at the supper last year will receive tickets in the mail this week, but additional supper tickets may be purchased at the door the night of the social.

As in former years, the food will be prepared by the Stella Maris Ladies Auxiliary, under the supervision of Miss Emma Kress.

Proceeds will be used to help defray operating expenses of the past season. Camp Stella Maris, diocesan camp for boys and girls, is a unit of the Division of Social Action, Rochester Catholic Charities.

Corregidor Flag Gift Rites Set

Arthur, have been plied with letters of petition from Rochester.

The perseverance of Mr. Hetzler and his committee finally was rewarded with success when the government recently granted permission for Rochester to raise a flag on Corregidor.

The official permission, stipulated, however, that Rochester must pay to the U. S. Treasury the cost of a regulation flag which is required by Army regulations for military posts.

Mr. Hetzler promptly responded with his personal check to the Treasury Department and this week a large American flag, weighing exactly fifty pounds and measuring 20 by 30 feet arrived at the office of Mayor Dicker.

"The Rochester Flag for Corregidor will remain at the Mayor's office until it is handed over in the public ceremonies to Army officials who will fly it to Corregidor where Rochester soldiers will raise it proudly for the first time over the sight now hallowed by American bravery and sacrifice.

Maryknoll Nun Visits Parents in Auburn

Auburn — Sister Miriam Anthony of the Maryknoll Sisters has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Donovan at their home in Parker Street. Sister Miriam Anthony entered the Maryknoll Order shortly after her graduation from East High School in 1939.

She was a member of St. Mary's Parish and active member of the Sodality of Mary of that parish. In June of this year she took her final vows at the Mother House at Maryknoll. Sister Miriam Anthony has completed her college work and has been assigned to a school in St. Louis, Mo., where the Maryknoll sisters conduct a school for colored children.

Her sister, Sister Miriam David is also a member of the Maryknoll Order and is stationed at Honolulu, Hawaii. Sister Miriam David in addition to her duties as a teacher has been active in war work in Honolulu and has met many Auburn people during the war years.
