

Army Chaplain Killed
In Accident in Germany

Washington (NC) — The Rev. Andrew A. Bacigalupo, O. F.M., who served overseas as an

Army chaplain, has been reported killed in an accident, the War Department has announced. The announcement stated that Father Bacigalupo lost his life in a Jeep accident in Germany on August 14. Before he entered the Army, Father Bacigalupo served at the Italian parish of St. Leonard's of Port Maurice in Boston.

YANKS RECOVER NAZI ART LOOT

At Understein, Germany, American troops unload a freight car containing religious art treasures, one of many shipped to Germany by Nazi soldiers and officials from all parts of Europe. The value of the stolen European art is estimated at $2,000,000,000. American occupation forces are endeavoring to return every piece of sculpture, paintings and manuscripts, to their original owners.

St. Stanislaus Youth
Dances Open Sept. 8

St. Stanislaus auditorium, corner of Norton and Hudson, will be the scene of the first of a series of Saturday night youth dances Saturday, Sept. 8, from 8:45 to 11:45 P. M.

These dances are sponsored by the Young Ladies' Sodality under the chairmanship of Virginia J. Dominiak and the Santan, A. C., headed by chairman Frank Nowak.

Assisting Miss Dominiak are Virginia Koneczny, Melania Pryhoda, Felicia Wokosyn, and Eleanor Zylinski, tickets; Teresa Feller, Phyllis Kardas, Irene Koneczny, Lorraine Weiss and Dorothy Kupaki, checking. George Bartula, Louis Malnowski, and Bob Nowak will assist Frank Nowak on the door committee.

Al Johnson, his trumpet and orchestra, will furnish music both "hot and sweet." Popular songs featuring vocalists Bob Di Neri and Bob Karley, will highlight the program.

These dances are sponsored in conjunction with the community recreational program.

Mission Guild Opens
Fall Meetings Monday

Schedule of meetings for the Catholic Mission Guild will be resumed Monday evening, Sept. 10, at 8:00 p. m., in Columbus Civic Centre. Mrs. John Gorman, president, will preside.

After a brief business meeting cards will be played and refreshments served.

The following members will serve as hostesses: Mesdames William Heindl, John J. Sholly, Richard Ceresa, William Metzger, Joseph Norman, William Flaigler, Bernard Green, Frank Ruckert, Gilbert Ernst, Florence Liberman and Miss Ruth Martin.

Plans New Market

The Ernest Sales Storage market, formerly located at 282 Clinton Ave. N.E., has been closed until a suitable location in that neighborhood has been found, according to an announcement by the market.

Mercy Guild Will Set Rummage Sale

Plans for a rummage sale to be held by the Mercy Guild of the Little Flower will be discussed at the September meeting of the Guild Friday evening, Sept. 14, at 8 p. m. in Columbus Civic Centre.

Mrs. George Andrews has been chosen general chairman of the sale and Mrs. Charles Gosnell is co-chairman. Other members of the committees will be appointed at the meeting.

Refreshments will be served and cards will be played. Hostesses for this meeting are: Mesdames James Francis Kalb, George Garney, George Quirk and Alfred Spearman. Mrs. Joseph F. Ritz will preside.

Nazarene Guild
Slates Benefit

Another in the series of benefit parties sponsored by the Nazarene Guild of Holy Family Church, will take place Friday, Sept. 7, after Holy Hour services.

Proceeds of these affairs will continue to support the parish service paper, the "Nazarene," which is still being sent to men and women in uniform.

Sodality Conducts Program at Villa

Last in a series of Friday evening programs sponsored by the Sodality and Professional Unit of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Sodality for the children of St. Joseph's Villa, was held Friday in St. Bernard's College.

This function marked the closing of a summer session of programs which provided entertainment in the form of handicraft, music and outdoor sports.

Members who participated in these programs are the Mesdames Bernice Schmale, Lorraine Gann, Jean Robinson, Helen Thomas, Linda Jean Schneider, Agnes Husman, Dorothy Waldner, Marie Elmer, Eleanor Mary Anthony Barrow and Irene Hallings.
