8 Graduates of St. James Hospital Hear Msgr. Shay

Horsell - Special treatment of the soul of a patient as well as of his body was recommended to the graduation class of St. James Mercy Hospital...

Diplomas were presented to eight Senior Cadet Nurses by the Rev. Andrew T. Dissett, pastor of St. Ann's Church...

Extending his own congratulations to the first post-war graduating class of nurses, Monsignor Shay declared: "I cannot stress too much the importance of today's scientific methods and treatment of the human body..."

"It is up to you girls, the healers of today, to extend your knowledge and learning to those who require it. It is you, the humanitarians, who can not only heal a crippled body, but a crippled soul."

The following girls were awarded diplomas marking completion of three years of nursing training: the Misses Eloise Marie Briggs, Cornelia Elizabeth French, Sarah Kathryn Larkin, Mary Jane Lyons, Eileen Agnes...

St. Benedict Relics Return to Basilica

Paris - (NC) - With great solemnity the relics of St. Benedict have been returned to the Basilica of St. Benoit-sur-Loire, near Orleans...

The French Government was officially represented at the ceremony by the Prefect of Loiret and the general in command of that military zone...

The veneration of the people for their illustrious protector was demonstrated by the manner in which they had decorated the streets through which the procession passed.
