Group Hears Army Chaplain Recite War Experiences

By Joan A. Reardon

Seneca Falls — St. Patrick's Guild and Altar Society had the pleasure of hearing Captain Wm. J. O'Brien, Chaplain of the United States Army, who is, at present, home on sick leave, tell his experiences in World War II. Father O'Brien is a native of Auburn, the son of Captain of Police James O'Brien. He and Father Cuffney were classmates at St. Bernard's Seminary, and it was upon Fr. Cuffney's invitation, that Father O'Brien addressed the Guild.

Having served four years in the Army, three of which were spent overseas, Father O'Brien went through the rigors of war and saw action in Africa and Italy. He is recipient of the Silver Star decoration. Previous to entering the armed forces, Father O'Brien was stationed at Corpus Christi Church, Rochester.

The new slate of officers — Miss Elizabeth Moreland, President; Mrs. Andrew Sipos, Vice-President; Miss Alice Luckern, Treasurer; Miss Helen Hughes, Recording Secretary; and Miss Yolanda Barbi, Financial Secretary — were installed by Mrs. Chris. Laude, retiring President, assisted by Mrs. Frank Shannon, as Sergeant-at-arms.

Plans are being formulated for the sixth annual banquet, which usually is held late in October.

Sisters of St. Joseph were present to hear Father O'Brien's talk. Approximately 100 members attended. A lunch was served under the direction of a committee headed by Miss Mary E. Barbi.

Confirmation Oct. 21

Seneca Falls — The Sacrament of Confirmation will be administered to a large class of children by His Excellency, the Most Reverend James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, Sunday, October 21, in St. Patrick's Church, according to announcement by the Rev. John P. O'Brien, Pastor, last Sunday.

The children are receiving special instructions from the Sisters, preparatory to receiving the Sacrament.
