Bishop Kearney Endorses Drive for Chemung Chest

Full support of His Excellency, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, is being given to the 1943 Chemung County Peace Chest, it is announced at the Chancery in Rochester.

Pastors of the Catholic churches in Elmira, Elmira Heights and Horseheads on next Sunday, Sept. 30, will read an appeal to their people from the Bishop of the diocese.

"In these happy hours that mark the restoration of peace to the world," the Bishop states, "a donation to your Community Chest might well serve as an expression of gratitude to God who has spared us all the hunger, cold, and disease that now afflict so many of the nations of the world."

With Elmira Catholic Charities and its outstanding record in the community supported 100 per cent by the Chest, a generous response from Catholic people is expected to follow reading of the Bishop's appeal.
