POLISH AMERICANS IN PROTEST OF U. S. ENVOY RECOGNITION

Rochester Polish Americans this week filed vigorous protest with Secretary of State James F. Byrnes against American recognition of an ambassador from the Soviet supported Warsaw government of Poland.

Oskar Lange, an American citizen, is reported about to renounce his fealty to the United States and accept the post of Warsaw representative to this country.

Declaring that the present Warsaw regine of Poland is Soviet-controlled, the Rochester Polish leaders state:

"We, as American citizens, protest the proposed foisting of Oskar Lange on the United States as an alleged ambassador from the Republic of Poland. His apparent willingness to renounce American citizenship in order to serve Stalin should preclude him from such service in the country he is renouncing."

The protest concludes with a commendation to Secretary Byrnes for his strong stand against Soviet demands in the recent Council of Foreign Ministers in London.

Signers of the message to Mr. Byrnes included: Rochester Polish Relief Committee Chapter 59, National Committee of Americans of Polish Descent, Inc.; and Rochester Council No. 27 of the Polish National Alliance.

Two Couples Mark Golden Weddings

Two Catholic couples of Rochester between them had seen a century's wedded happiness as they celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto S. Wolfe, 310 Driving Park Ave., commemorated their Golden Jubilee with a High Mass of Thanksgiving at Holy Rosary Church on Monday, Oct. 1.

Gathered together for the occasion was every member of the family, their five children, Frank E. Wolfe, 107 Culver Rd.; Mrs. Paul McMahon of Cleveland, Ohio; Sister Mary Regina, S.S.J., St. Joseph's Hospital, Elmira; Bernard J. Wolfe, 69 Mayfair Dr.; Mrs. Zoe St. Maurice, 117 Harding Rd., and seven grandchildren.

Also celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Devereaux, 47 Grieg St., who attended an anniversary Mass at Immaculate Conception Church Thursday, Oct. 4, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Reilly, attendants at their wedding.
