Pontiff's Role in Peace Told St. Augustine's Men

"Pope Pius XII has emerged from World War II as the foremost champion of peace in our time," stated the Rev. Patrick J. Flynn, associate editor of the Courier-Journal, in an address before the Holy Name Society of St. Augustine's Church Wednesday evening in the parish hall.

Explaining the Papal Peace Plan, Father Flynn showed its application to the United Nations peace efforts.

"The failure of the London Parley, the postwar power-politics and the discovery of atomic energy, the outbreak of economic warfare," he declared, "prove more conclusively than ever that the peace principles of Pius XII constitute the only workable blueprint for building a new world of peace."

Members of St. Augustine's Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body this Sunday morning at the 7:45 Mass. It was announced by the Rev. John M. Duffy, pastor and spiritual director.
